

BACKSTRETCH BEAT – NICHOLAS OAKES

Sunday, September 27 (1:00 PM Post Time)

Race 1 2-5-3

Thebossisagirl Is almost sire to control the tempo in here and if Barrieau can find any fractions to his liking it should be all open road ahead.

Theskysthelimit Has a nice finishing kick that will make her presence felt.

Woodmere Rollily Consistently picks away at stakes level competition every week. We will place her for third.

Race 2 1-2-4

Oceanview Lucky Finally gets an inside draw and if he shows up like we know he can the lion's share could be all his. He is a bit of a hunch but we will take him for the win.

JJ Patrick Likely to be the favourite in here with how well he has been racing. The top spot could easily belong to him.

Whims Drop Off Is turning into a very nice racehorse and the short field will help him enable his quick final panel to gobble up ground before the wire.

Race 3 4-2-8

Dusty Lane Milo Rides a three-race win streak into this one and is the only horse to beat divisional leader Mr Finlay Ridge fair and square. With that trotter absent in here you have to look to this guy to win again.

Peach Pie Will Do Qualified very nicely and any effort close to his first two charted lines should make him stakes placed in his debut.

A Little Go Go Won the fastest division of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes on September 10 but the outside draw will leave him with a pile of work to do the entire mile. We think he can overcome it to trot into the triactor.

Race 4 4-6-2

Red Dirt Star This pacer knows how to win and if she can find the front her chances go way up. Top call.

Dustylane Zambucca With 14 top three finishes from 16 starts she is a very hard filly to leave out of the triactor.

Live And Let Di Was never better than she was last time in Charlottetown. With her partnership with Arsenault remaining intact you have to think she is a major threat again today.

Race 5 8-1-2

Hop Up Will no doubt be the favourite to win this entire series but her rivals are no slouches. If she tastes defeat against the girls this season this will be the time while having to battle with post 8.

Osprey Delta Has only missed the top three on two occasions all season and rail control with first time Brodie should grab your attention to make her a major player.

Daisy River Jason gets along with this mare better than anyone and if she minds her manners at the start you have to like her for a piece of it.

Value Play Osprey Delta

Race 6 1-2-5

JJ Gracie An impressive winner on Thursday in Charlottetown so today you have to expect more of the same today from an even more favourable post.

Joese Beauty The fast first half in the P.E.I. Colt Stakes let this filly come out of her 11-length hole and power up to a new lifetime best. Retaining Campbell in the seat makes this filly a major threat again today but we don't think she will get our top choice.

JJ Kinley Can pace nicely in 1:57 and change and grabs a cheque in stakes competition every time. With this short field we think she can hit the top three today.

Race 7 1-3-4

Outrageous Story Rail control, Barrieau and shows a last line in 1:55 and change. This one should be all over.

Brutushebarbarian Those five wins from 11 starts have to make you take notice. He appears to be the most suitable choice for the runner-up spot.

Watts Of Attitude The final half was a complete spint last time out but he still managed a closer in 28.1. We know this guy is sitting on a big one and we think it could be today.

Race 8 3-5-4

Tequila Tuesday With Mabou Ridge absent his only rival in here is the post 5 entrant. The last time that filly beat him he was having his worst day of the year making a break at the start and coming up real short at the end. We don't see a repeat of that today; it should be all clear sailing down the highway.

Go With Her Definitely towers over her other three rivals to make her a no brainer for the two spot. If Myles lets some fractions get away on him with the top choice she does have a real chance to finish a little higher.

Gottogitmesum Ambyr should be battling with her Dad for the three in here but we'll give her the edge for the final spot in the ticket.

Race 9 2-6-3

Imalookertoo The last two times he saw Campbell in the bike he paced to 1:55 victories. Campbell is back today so that should be the deciding factor to put this guy on top.

Windemere Ryan This guy is as game a stakes colt as you may ever see. He can leave or be taken back and always has a final push down the stretch. He will make it known he is in here.

The Big Chase Has proven to be very handy at guarding whatever spot he attains in the first quarter. With an inside draw we think he can get positioned early and get a big piece of this one.

Race 10 3-4-1

Woodmere Skyroller This filly have proved she can leave and keep trucking even without getting much of a breather in the mile. The path to the winner's circle goes through her.

Kiss Me Im Irish Has been stepping up big time since joining the Weatherbie stable and shaved second off her personal best in her latest. She should be a part of it.

Tobins Choice This filly is not a safe play there is no question about it. But we know how good she can be so we'll play the odds and place her on the bottom of the ticket.

Most Probable Woodmere Skyroller

Race 11 7-5-4

Tobins Rebel Has been proven to be the divisional giant time and again. His path to the front likely won't be real smooth in here but this guy has shown a will to win at all costs.

Mr Kelly Never got into it last time in Inverness. If Merner can map out any kind of trip in here he is the one that could snap our top choices win streak short.

Windemere Frank Has a ton of gate speed and if this guy touches down on the lead before our top choice clears he could make the first quarter interesting. He will surely be a big factor in here today.

Race 12 9-7-4

Berazzled Would have to do some real stickhandling to find the front today from the second tier but either way she should get away real handy the action. She will not be the favourite in here but we think she should sneak away with the top prize.

Arc Light Will have to rally from off-the-pace and could easily swoop up and pace away from them all if our top choice runs into any traffic trouble.

Woodmere Chella This mare have been on top of her game and Barrieau is sure to be in the mix of leavers at the start. She should be well positioned to land in the ticket.

Longshot Play Misty Memory N
