

Post Time Picks By Peter MacPhee

Thursday, September 17 (6:00 PM Post Time)

Race 1 3-2-1

J K Credit Second and third in her last two and draws an ideal spot for this one. Should be able to get away handy the front and if that's the case could get her first win of 2020.

Outrageous Song We liked that start three back where she was a bang up second and charted in 2:00.2. Her last one was pretty good too and if she goes there again she'll land on the ticket.

Tobins Angel Living on the edges in her last few but we think she'll be tucked in most of the way and if she's close at the top of the lane could get up for the bronze.

Race 2 2-4-8

Nikes Cowgirl Hasn't had much to cheer about this year but don't forget she did win five times last year. Her last qualifier was solid and if she can carry it over could get the job done in here.

Roxy Lund She does have the fastest win time on the page this year and lines up in a good spot tonight. Should be well spotted off the gate and if she finds her game could be back in the top three.

Windmerenoharndone Remains at the same level and has to leave from the fence tonight. We're playing a hunch Brodie can work out a trip and if that happens they could hit the board and provide some value as well.

Race 3 3-6-8

Majian Tango Drops out of the Open Trot and gets a great spot to work from in here. He hasn't been this low in a while and with the way he can close don't be surprised to see him in the winner's circle.

Setting Day That was some effort last out where she cleared up and went on to win by ten lengths in 1:59.1. Coming off that trip she deserves respect and looks to be a contender again.

Little Miss Winnie She's hit the ticket in her last two and now adds dash leader Campbell tonight. She'll be coming from the back but Marc is rolling and we're confident he maps out a trip.

Race 4 2-4-3

Doctor Sunshine The Weatherbie and Bradley combination have another nice filly and she went right down the road last time winning in 1:58.2. The strategy may be the same tonight and if she does clear could go back to back.

Ill Tell Me Ma Got into a early speed duel and then made a break finishing fifth last time. We think she may get a smoother journey tonight and with Barrieau back in the bike we'll call for the deuce.

Sun On The Beach She's been right there in his last two at this level and closed in 29 and change both times. If Jason can keep her in the mix she could come calling late and grab the show dough.

Value Play J J Kinley

Race 5 6-5-4

Mile Hill Willie Was flying on the end of it last time and just missed getting it all at the wire. Slightly better post and his form is excellent so if he fires homes in 28 and change again he could hit the wire first.

Hop Up Blasted off the wings and set a track record last out going gate to wire in 1:57.1! She already has six wins this year and is eleven for twelve in top threes and with the way she is racing expect another one tonight.

Labero Was a winner two back when he fronted the field and scored in 1:59.1. Moved up last time and finished fifth but with Dowling back in the sulky we think they might rally tonight and nab the show spot.

Race 6 7-1-6

Mittaroniandcheese Great effort from post eight when she came first up and hung on to win in 1:57.4. That was a confidence boosting win and with the way she can finish we think Merner may get her there again.

Akrotiri Made a bobble at the start last time but still recovered to record her fourth straight on the board finish. She's sharp right now and adds the Blue Knight so be prepared for another good result.

Thebossisagirl She already has three wins this year and was a winner four back in 1:57.1. Barrieau returns tonight and they've had success in the past so we think they round out the triactor.

Race 7 2-4-6

Killean Finale If you look down her lines she's been racing well of late and now gets post two for this start. She may be able to draft the entire trip and with the way she can scoot home could reach up and grab it late.

Juliep Hanover She's been excellent in her last two just missing in her latest assignment. Has to move up but with her great gate speed we expect her to be on the lead and land in the top three again.

Dueling Banjos Was sent to the point and cut it all out only to get nipped in the final strides. Remains at the same level and moves outside but coming off that performance we think she's a player in here.

Race 8 5-2-7

Clare Hall Hanover Made a break last time but prior to that had been racing well. She works hard every mile and does have three wins and with Barrieau back tonight could score number four on the season.

Howmac Blaze She has won a couple at lower levels going gate to wire. We're thinking Marc may spring the gate and if he does set up shop on the front end could be hard to reel in.

Dreas Good Powow Take a look at her lines and you'll see she does well racing at this level. It won't be easy from out here but the price will be right so you may want to include in your tickets.

Race 9 7-6-4

Freddie It looks like he's starting to find his form again and that spells trouble for his opposition. Drops a notch for this one and with the way he's racing get ready to see him smile for the camera.

Glider Man He's put together a very solid campaign and drops out of the Open for this one. Will likely be leaving hard off the gate and we expect him to be on or near the lead at the start and finish.

Cheeky Little Minx We don't know much about her but she did have four wins last year. Comes off a solid qualifier and if she goes there again could rally and get the show spot.

Most Probable Freddie

Race 10 1-5-3

Temagami Seelster Looked great again last time when she powered to the lead past three quarters and was a going away winner in 1:55.3 closing in a snappy 27.3. Has to move up again but we expect a high five!

Traces Of Purple Fired off the wings two back and bossed it the entire way scoring in 1:58.2 over an off track. She may not get that trip tonight but Campbell is back and we'll call for the silver.

Much Adoo She's been right there in her last two and lines up in a great spot for this one. Those closing panels say a lot and if she's close at the top of the stretch could add another top three.

Race 11 2-6-1

Lyons Jennielee Finally gets an inside post and looks to be set up for a great trip from here. We think she'll be firing off the wings and if they do control it could be hard to track down.

Sophist She's razor sharp right now and that was an awesome effort last out just missing to Filly Forty Seven. She's full of confidence and on her game so be ready for another good performance.

Miss Sangria We liked how she finished up in her last one closing in a brisk 28.3. She's going to get a great trip from here and we're betting she offers up a friendly price too.

Long Shot Play Better Be In Love

Race 12 4-2-7

Collective Wisdom Went to the front last time and was collared late in the mile. She drops a couple of notches and hasn't won in a while but we think that changes tonight.

Dancers Pass Good effort last time where she was second to Temagami Seelster and charted in 1:56.4 Drops a notch and gets a prime time post so expect her to get a piece of it.

Hurricane Hill She's been racing pretty well at higher levels and closed strong in her last two miles. She's also another class dropper that could land on the scene late and be part of the ticket.
