

Post Time Picks By Peter MacPhee

Saturday, September 26 (6:00 PM Post Time)

Race 1 2-1-5

Mayhem Man Drops to the bottom of the class ladder and gets another inside post. We're betting Marc will be aggressive off the wings and if they do clear could be on top all the way.

California Jack Already has a couple of wins this year and one came when he drew inside. Should be tucked in for most of it and if that happens may reach up and nab the silver.

Lord and Legend Finally got some good news when he avoided post eight and don't forget he does have a win in 1:58.1 this year. He's due for a good trip and if he gets it could contend and provide a nice price too.

Race 2 4-2-1

Outrageous Song She's been racing well in her brief career and has hit the board in three of her four starts. Could be coming from the back but in a compact field like this we say Gilles gets her there.

Psili Ammos Second and third in her last two and gets another great starting spot. Should be able to track most of the way and if she closes in 28.3 again could even get it all.

A Lady By Chance Raced great last time she was on PEI finishing a bang up second to J J Talisa. Lands on the pylons and is going to get a great trip so you may want to put her in your tickets.

Race 3 2-6-5

Woodmere Beachline Looked great last week when he came first up and powered to the lead drawing off to win in 2:00.4. That was a strong effort and with Campbell back in the bike we think they double up.

Sports Report He's been sharp in his last couple and closed in 27 and change both times. Moves outside for this one but he could be flying late again and that means another top three.

My Boy Cade Didn't really get into last out but that was a track record mile. He looks to have the speed to go with these and Brodie returns so we think he gets a piece of it.

Race 4 6-3-1

Tempo Seelster Almost got there last time but was collared late by Hemingway at the wire. Drops a notch and picks up MacPhee which could be a winning combination tonight.

Jetster Lead for a long time last week only to be nipped by Spack Jarrow in the final strides. Moves up slightly but remains inside and gets Marc back so be prepared for another good result.

Whosurwinner Been living on the edges in Summerside and now makes the move to Charlottetown. He's been a stone cold closer for most of his career and if Adam can keep him close could rally for the show prize.

Race 5 3-5-1

Doctor Sunshine Four for four in top threes and went right down the road two back winning in 1:58.2. We think Mark may be the call the shots in here and if does get front they could be hard to track down.

Woodmere Vanish That was quite a debut at Northside where she raced the "A" fillies finishing a solid third and charted in 200.4. Makes the journey to PEI and if she races like that again will hit the ticket.

Comealong Take a look at that start two back where she tracked the entire way and finished third. Could be in line for a similar trip from here and could get up for the bronze.

Race 6 3-1-5

Gascoigne Sundae Has hit the board in four straight all third place finishes. He's been knocking on the door for that first win and look at those closing panels...big shot tonight.

Betterthanbutter Went wire to wire two back in Summerside and when he draws inside is always right there. Lands on the pylons and will get a trip so we can't leave him out.

Handovertheroses When you look at his lines he's always in the mix and is five for seven in top threes. If you don't want to play the chalk and are searching for some value this could be the one.

Race 7 6-5-7

Shadow Of A Daut Was sent to the point last start only to surrender the lead late in the mile finishing third and charted in 1:56. He's had an excellent year and now gets Marc so we predict he hits the wire first.

Mall Cop Just missed the top three in his last two but was still charted in 1:56-1:57. He likely be coming from off the pace but if Kenny can keep him close he can fire home and may have some say late.

Fern Hill Dynamic He's been racing well of late and getting it done from the outside posts. Gets another one tonight but we're confident Corey maps out a trip and rounds out the triactor.

Race 8 1-4-3

Southfield Skye Got into an early speed duel last time and came up just short at the finish. Could have an easier path to the front tonight and if they do control it may go gate to wire.

Woodmere Stella She's putting together a solid year with seven top threes and over $17,000 in the bank. Much better post tonight and we think she takes advantage of it and gets the deuce.

The Real Mccooy Been good in her last two finishing second to Tobins Brownie on both occasions. Gets another great post to work from and looks to be in line for a nice trip and a favourable result.

Value Play Elm Grove Penney

Race 9 3-4-6

Dustylanegoliath How's his year going so far? He's six for eight in top threes, made over $18,000 in earnings and has a record of 1:56.4. Last time on PEI he was a winner and closed in 27.2...looks like a must use.

Saltwater Savage What a terrific year this guy is having with four wins and $14,000 in the bank. He was just nipped by Dustylanegoliath last time and with the way he's racing we won't be surprised if he's first or second.

Woodmere Alvin Judging by his last two performances he's really starting to turn it on. Has to move outside but those closing quarters say a lot and he could add another top three to his totals.

Race 10 6-4-1

Burnout Hanover Looks to be back on his game and wired them two back in 1:54.4. He almost got it done again last week and with Barrieau back in the sulky he could land on the line first.

Sports Royalty He's put together a tidy season and always seems to be in the mix. Gets Kenny back for this one and if he scoots home in 28 and change will be right there at the wire.

Bank Shot Hanover Drops down and grabs the rail for this assignment. He's another guy that can fly home so we'll see what Jason decides to do but we expect him to have a big say in the outcome.

Race 11 4-6-3

Tobins Brownie Has dominated from start to finish in her last two and now has five wins on the year. We think David sets up shop on the front end and bosses it all the way to the winners circle.

Western Wish She's rolling along with three wins from four starts on the season. She also meets a good group tonight but her form is excellent and we aren't about to leave her out.

Need To Know Hasn't been out of the top three all year and was a bang up second to Western Wish last out. With consistency like that we have to include and so should you.

Race 12 6-2-5

Woodmere Stealdeal He's a perfect nine for nine this year and has been breaking track records all over the Maritimes. Draws outside for this one but don't worry he'll overcome it and smile for the camera again.

Steel Reefer Sitting on back to back wins and lines up in great spot tonight. He's having a dynamite campaign and you have to think he's going to get a trip from here and another on the board finish.

Whistler He's won two of his last three and was just charted in 1:56.4. His closing panels are solid so if he's close at the top of the lane he could rally for the show dough.

Most Probable Woodmere Stealdeal

Race 13 6-1-3

Screen Test Gets away from the bearcats tonight and the last time that happened he was winner in 1:54.2 closing in a brisk 27.1. This is an excellent group but we think he gets his swagger back and finds the wire first.

Melanies Magic Great effort last time where he drafted the entire way and was a bang up second to Ashes To Ashes. Looks to be in line for a similar trip and if it works out he will be part of it.

Harbourlite Jerry All he does is finish in the top three and he proved it again last week. Take a look at his lines when he draws inside and that's why he's back on our ticket.

Race 14 3-1-2

Zero Rate We've said it before he's always in the thick of it every week. Takes a minor dip and gets a great post so be ready for another good performance.

Spack Jarrow Excellent win last out where he fired home in 28.3 to get the gold. Moving on up but that was a confidence booster and now gets the rail and Campbell so we'll call for the silver tonight.

I C True Grit Finally gets a good post and Barrieau is back in the bike for this one. Should get away a little better and if he gets a trip could surprise and provide some value as well.

Long Shot Play J K Express
