

Race 1 4-1-6

Therealdeal Was issued a parking ticket last time and paid the price fading to a fourth place finish. She was second and third in her two starts prior to that and with Bradley in the bike today we think they hit the wire first.

Hurricane Hill Take a look at that start two back where she drew inside and just missed in a blanket finish. Back inside for this one and if Corey can keep her in the mix expect them to have a big say before it's over.

What A Babe When you look at her chart lines she's only missed the board once in her last five starts. She also has to leave from the outside again but we're confident David maps out another top three finish.

Race 2 4-3-2

Watts Of Attitude We loved the way he finished up last week storming home in 28.4 and just missing to Galterio Hanover. He gets the same class, same post, same driver and maybe a trip to the winners circle today.

Galterio Hanover Was sent to the point last out and controlled every step of it winning in 2:02. The game plan may be the same in here and if they do set up shop on the front end don't be shocked if they're first or second again.

Grand Ave Legend Pretty good effort in his first PEI start where he tracked all the way and nabbed the bronze. Gets another great post to work from and the Blue Knight returns so we think they hit the ticket.

Race 3 1-6-7

Pocketfulofpromise Got a great trip last time where she drafted all the way and was a solid second to Rave Review. Gets rail control and will be tucked in so there's a good chance she could reach up for that first lifetime win.

Rave Review Was hustled off the gate last week and never looked back winning by over two lengths. She's off to a nice start in 2021 and Corey is rolling so get ready for another good performance.

Tobins Angel She's been living on the edges in her last few and draws another outside post for this start. Just a reminder she does have the fastest win time on the page so if you're searching for value this could be the one.

Race 4 4-5-2

Babbling That was a big time move up the backstretch last week coming first up and powering to the lead for his fourth straight win. Moving on up the class ladder and adds Barrieau so it could be a high five today.

Creepin He put together a great 2020 season with six wins and a record of 1:57.4. Drops a notch for this one and those closing panels say a lot so if David has him close at the top of the lane expect them to be a factor at the finish.

Howmac Blaze She's been razor sharp for the past month and proved it again last time finishing second to a hard closing Tell Me Why. She lines up in a similar spot and will be handy the action so you may want to include.

Most Probable Babbling

Race 5 6-5-1

Magical Cowgirl Blasted off the wings and went right down the road winning in 2:02. It was a sharp effort and she's back in the same post today so we'll see what Corey decides to do but we think they double up.

Dillans Mustang He's been pretty good in his last two starts finishing third both times. Gets post five this time and Gilles returns so if they close in 30 seconds again could rally to get the deuce.

Oh To Be Me He's another guy that's been on the fringes but not that far away at the finish. Lands on the pylons and will be covered up for most of it so they're a good option to round out the tri.

Long Shot Play Wunder Shadow

Race 6 1-3-5

Slide Guitar Had a tough trip last week coming first up and finishing fifth. The good news is he drops a notch and gets the rail so be prepared for a bounce back performance today.

Windemere Albert He's been battling tough posts for the past little while and still right there most of the time. Gets a prime time post for this assignment and with Bradley back at the controls we think they get piece of it.

Painted Pony He's rolling along right now and been first, second, and third in his last three starts. Takes a slight dip and looks to have the step to go with these so if he closes in 29.3 again they could get it all.

Race 7 1-6-5

Filly Forty Seven She's had the rail the last couple of weeks against this group and raced pretty well. She'll be guarding the cones again today and Jason has had success with her in the past so we think they get there today.

Woodmere Chella We thought she was a good value play last week and she delivered a nice pay day to those who bet her. Has to move outside but coming off that trip we think they're major players again.

Berazzled That was an excellent second place finish in her first start since last October. Should be a little tighter this week and with Kenny back in the sulky we think they land on the podium again.

Race 8 6-4-2

The Time To Win We liked the way she raced last week firing home in 30 seconds to get the show dough. Takes a slight drop and adds Gilles so today may be the day she lives up to her name.

Warrawee Ulla Fired off the wings last week and was a going away winner in 1:59.2. We're wagering Jason may want to boss it again and if they do clear will be hard to track down.

Outrageous Spirit She's been second and third in her last two and if you go further down the page was a winner four back. She should be well spotted off the gate and if the trip works out could add another top three to her totals.

Value Play Fluentocity

Race 9 5-4-3

Bugsy Maguire He was put on the front last time and was a gate to wire winner closing in a snappy 28.2. He gets post five this week and if they control it again could close the winter meet with back to back wins.

Chocolate Swirl He's been awesome since arriving on PEI and was a rock solid second last week. Gets a better post this week and check out all those brisk closing quarters so we're predicting they get the gold or silver again.

Rockin Indy He raced great last week and flew home in 28 and change to get the bronze. He lines up in a better spot and Corey knows him well so it may be smart to put him in your tickets.

Race 10 1-5-6

Sports Royalty He's had post six in his last two starts and been right there at the finish. Moves up slightly and you have to think he's going to get a great journey from here so we'll put them on top of the ticket.

Tempo Seelster He's been oh so close the last three weeks but can't quite find the winners circle. We've said it before Kenny gets along well with him and if the trip works out they could go one better today.

Smart Official That was a huge effort last week where he came first over and got up to score in 1:58.2. Has to move up and is on the outside but we think he comes calling late to get the show spot.
