

Race 1 1-5-6

Heart and Guts That was a sharp qualifier where he drafted all the way and just missed at the wire. Lands on the pylons and will be tucked in again so he could reach up and win the opener.

Twin B Shadow We liked the way he finished up in his qualifier rallying late to finish third. Draws a similar spot on the gate tonight and the Blue Knight is back so we'll call for the silver.

Ten Mile Beach He was sent to the point in his qualifier and led for a long way before fading to a fifth place finish. He likes the front end and don't forget he did have the fastest win on the page last year so you may want to include.

Long Shot Play Windsun Rebel

Race 2 2-1-4

My Boy Cade He was pointed to the front on Tuesday night and just collared in the final strides by Betterthanbutter. It was still an excellent effort and if he does that again we won't be shocked if they hit the wire first.

Phantom Shadow He's off to a great start in his brief racing career and hasn't missed the top three yet. You have to think he's going to get a great trip from here and if it works out they could be first or second.

World Wonder He put up some impressive stats in 2020 including a couple of wins and record of 1:56.2. He's also coming off a rock solid qualifier and with Kenny returning they're back on our ticket.

Race 3 6-5-1

Pocketfulofpromise She raced great at the end of the winter meet finishing second three straight times. She also looked good in her qualifier on Tuesday night and is knocking on the door for that first lifetime win.

KCK Girlies Blasted off the wings in her qualifier and never looked back scoring in 2:02.4 over an off track. If the breaking issues are behind her they may be on the front again and could be hard to reel in.

Shes In The Moment She's the only one in here that had a win in 2020 and that was at Red Shores Summerside. Moves from the fence to the rail and will be covered up so it may be wise to put her in your tickets.

Race 4 4-5-1

California Jack We loved the way he raced in his qualifier pocket riding all the way and just missing in a tight finish. He did have a couple of wins in 2020 and with Brodie at the controls they could get it all tonight.

Card Swap He's a newcomer to PEI and did a have two victories last year including one at Western Fair in 1:57.3. Lines up outside but looks to have the step and we're confident David works out a trip and nabs the deuce.

Jadensmagicsteel When you look at his numbers he put together a tidy summary in 2020. He got it done from post six in his qualifier and now lands on the cones so get ready for a good result.

Race 5 6-5-3

Clare Hall Hanover She's coming off a solid season in 2020 which included five wins and a record of 1:58.2. Draws outside but Barrieau is back and he's had success with her in the past so we'll put them on top.

Magical Cowgirl She raced well for Corey during the winter meet and was a winner gate to wire in late January. Gets post five tonight and MacPherson knows her well so we say they get a piece of it.

I Can Do It She was on the edges in her qualifier but did close in a solid 29.4. We're playing a bit of a hunch here but Marc did drive her to a win last year and if you're looking for a price this could be the one.

Race 6 5-4-1

Ms Moyse She had a dynamite 2020 season and was 14 for 22 in top three finishes. Gets a new pilot and draws outside but we predict she overcomes it and finds the winners circle tonight.

Western Wish Was able to track along nicely in her qualifier and was a bang up second to Rock N Teen. Just a reminder she did have three wins last year and check out those closing panels...have to include.

Woodmere Stella Take a closer look at that last chart line where she closed in a snappy 28.3 and wasn't that far away at the finish. Should get a ground saving trip from here and is a good option to round out the tri.

Race 7 3-6-5

Eagle Jolt Hard to believe he turned 14 when the calendar flipped to 2021. He still has some step and proved it in the qualifier firing home in 28.3. With that in mind and Marc in the bike we think they get the gold.

Harbourlite Jerry This guy is always in the mix and if you need proof just look at his numbers in 2020. He has to work from the fence tonight but with the way he can close expect him to have a big say before it's over.

Shiftyn Georgie Another teenager that turned 14 back in January. He likes to be up handy the action so we'll see what Jaycob decides to do but we think he works out a trip and gets the show dough.

Race 8 4-7-2

Kataparka That was an impressive debut on Tuesday night, bossing it all the way and cruising to a 1:59.1 score. We're thinking the game plan will be the same tonight and if they do clear could go coast to coast again.

Doctor Sunshine Seven for eight in top three's last year and she took a record of 1:58.2. Bradley and Weatherbie are a great combination on the track and this filly looks to be a contender in here.

Woodmere Rollex When you take a closer look at his stats he did have a pretty good 2020 season. Gets a great spot to work from and if you're searching for value this could be a smart play.

Most Probable Kataparka

Race 9 5-2-6

Miss Sangria What a year she had in 2020 reeling off 7 wins and a record of 1:55.3. She's versatile and can race from the front or back and with Brodie in the driver's seat could return to her winning ways.

Mrs. Dragonfire She only had one win last year but did land in the top three in half of her starts. When you look at her summary all those second place finishes stand out...could get another one tonight.

Gonna Fool Ya We don't know much about her but she did have an eye catching win over Northfield in 1:54.1. Draws outside against a good group but if David can keep her close they could come calling late and get the bronze.

Race 10 4-1-6

Saltwater Savage He raced the best colts in the Maritimes last year and was right there every start. He looked awesome in his qualifier last Saturday and if he does that again could kick off his campaign on a winning note.

Well Eli He got to the front in his qualifier and controlled every step of it winning in 2:00.3 and closing in a brisk 28.4. It could be all systems go in this race but with this guy on the rail he's going to get a great trip and a spot in the top three.

Disneyman He's turning into a very nice race horse and that was some trip in his qualifier on Tuesday night when he fired off the wings and went right down the road scoring in 1:59.3. He may not get that trip tonight but with the way he can close we can't leave him out.

Value Play The Big Chase

Race 11 2-3-5

Avatar J He was razor sharp at Rideau back in March and check out all those brisk closing quarters. Don't forget he won 10 races last year and Gilles gets along very well with him so we think they hit the wire first.

Screen Test He had a remarkable 2020 season with seven wins and record of 1:54.2. This is an excellent group but he lines up in a favourable spot and we're betting Corey maps out a trip to get the silver.

Chocolate Swirl He's been excellent since arriving on PEI and already has four wins in 2021. While you're at it check out that closing quarter in his qualifier and that's why we aren't about to leave him out.

Race 12 7-3-4

Burnout Hanover Was a five time winner in 2020 and had a mark of 1:54.4. It won't be easy from out here but with Gilles back in the bike we think he finds room late and gets up to win the finale.

Winter Blast Gets a great post for this start and we're betting David will be aggressive off the wings and if they do set up shop on the front end will be hard to track down.

Mick Dundee He's another guy that's always in the mix week in and week out. Gets a mid pack post tonight and if Donnie has him close when they turn for home they could rally and hit the ticket.
