

Race 1 6-2-4

Back In The Game Looked good in her seasonal debut reaching up late to grab the bronze. She drops a couple of notches and is back outside but if Kenny has her close at the top of the lane we think they get it all.

Magical Cowgirl She's been sharp the past few weeks and has the hit the board in three straight. Takes a minor dip and should be tucked in for most of it so we'll call for the silver.

Dueling Banjos Been living on the edges in her last three starts but don't forget she had post seven last out. Much better starting point tonight and if she closes in 28 and change could complete the tri.

Race 2 2-3-1

Emmy Lou Hayes She almost got there last week finishing second and just missing by a whisker. Lines up in a prime time spot and is knocking on the door for that first career win...big shot tonight.

Ms Patricia Bea We liked that start two back where she tracked all the way and was just nipped in a tight finish. She looks to be in line for a similar trip and with Barrieau hoping on board we suggest you put them in your tickets.

The Real McCoy She was on the lead for a long way last time before settling for a third place finish. The tactics could be the same tonight and with the way Campbell is rolling we won't be shocked if they're first, second or third.

Race 3 4-3-6

Elm Grove Misty When you take a look at her 2020 stats she did have three wins and a record of 1:58.3. We're betting Dave will have her up handy the action and if that's the case she could reach up and win.

I Can Do It The partnership with Campbell has worked out well and they've hit the ticket in four straight. She remains at the same level and is back inside so we aren't about to leave them out.

Bad Silver Finished third two starts back and closed home in a solid 28.4. Gets post six and it won't be easy from out here but with Brodie in the bike they could come calling late and get the show prize.

Race 4 3-5-2

Plain Jane Fired off the wings and never looked back going gate to wire at Red Shores Summerside. Makes the move to Charlottetown and we're thinking Marc will get to call the shots all the way to the winners circle.

Rock On Harriett First and second in her last two and just a reminder the track was two seconds off last Thursday. She moves off the rail and adds Dowling so we think they're a factor at the finish.

Bet The Tide Win, place, and show in her last three and check out all those brisk closing quarters. Draws post two and should get a smooth journey from here so we say they get up for the show dough.

Race 5 1-2-5

Sailor Blue We loved the way she raced last week drafting all the way and finishing a bang up third to Hop Up. Takes a slight drop and you have to think she's going to get a great trip so it could be picture time.

Labero He's been on the fringes this season but up against some real tough customers. Don't forget he did win four times in 2020 and Gilles knows him well so be prepared for a good result.

Buckaroo Finished fifth in the Open trot last week but it was his first start since November 2019. Gets a new pilot and he should be a little tighter so they're a good bet to land in the top three.

Race 6 2-1-5

Miss Sangria She's missed the top three in her last two starts finishing six both times. Drops a level and will be covered up for most of it so we think she finds her game and hits the wire first.

JJ Gracie Pretty good effort last time finishing fourth but not that far away at the wire. She did have six wins last year and those closing panels say a lot...have to include.

Mrs Dragonfire Been on the edges in her last three but racing higher up the class ladder. She's another one dropping down for this assignment and Marc returns so we think they get a piece of it.

Race 7 5-7-1

Go With Her What a year she had in 2020 with three wins, over $36,000 in earnings and a record of 1:59.4. She also looked awesome in the qualifier and we're wagering Brodie will be aggressive off the wings and could go right down the road.

Tequila Tuesday Made an early break last time but recovered to finish a strong second. He looks to have the step to go with these and if Myles maps out a trip they could get the deuce.

Windemere Ally She was able to follow along last week and just missed hitting the ticket. Back on the cones and she's been third at this level before so we think that happens again tonight.

Most Probable Go With Her

Race 8 6-4-3

Gonna Fool Ya She's been razor sharp to begin the meet and hasn't been out of the top three this season. Has to move outside but we're confident David works out a trip and with the way she can fly home we think they get the gold.

The Time To Win That was some trip last week coming first up and scoring in 1:58.3. Gets a mid pack post tonight and Marc is red hot so we think they're serious contenders in here.

Ubettimagoodone Fired to the front last week and raced well finishing third to The Time To Win. Draws post three this week and Barrieau gets the call so expect them to have some say before it's over.

Race 9 3-1-2

Hop Up She's had a terrific start to the year and has reeled off three straight wins. Corey could be aiming for the front again and if they do set up shop on the point could score win number four on the season.

Freddie We went with him last week and he delivered getting that first win of 2021. Gets rail control and with 70 lifetime wins on his resume there's a strong chance we see him in the winner's circle again.

Windmeredontuworry When you look at his lines he always right there and proved it again last time. While you're at it take a look at those closing quarters and the price will be right so this could be a smart play.

Race 10 6-3-1

Wannashakeyoutree Was sent off as the chalk choice last week and won for fun in 1:57.3. That was a confidence booster and she has to move to the fence but with Barrieau back we think they double up.

Woodmere Stella She's been excellent in her last two and was oh so close last time just getting collared late in the mile. It looks like she'll be well positioned again and if they do control it could be hard to track down.

Pacific Delight she raced great last week drafting all the way and just missing to Killean Finale. It was still an excellent effort and if she does that again will be back on the ticket.

Long Shot Play Southfield Skye

Race 11 5-2-3

Woodmere Skyroller She's been razor sharp to start the meet and has finished second in back to back weeks. Don't forget she did have twelve wins last year and with Barrieau back in the bike they're a good bet to hit the line first.

Arc Light Looked more like her old self last week grinding first over and scoring in an impressive 1:56.2. Marc and her are a great combination but the question is does she have her swagger back? We're about to find out.

Ladylike Take a closer look at that line and you'll see she was third but only a length away at the wire. She also set a track record two back and Dowling returns so we can't leave them out.

Race 12 1-2-6

Lyons Jennielee We love the way she's racing and take a closer peek at those final panels. Gets rail control and Kenny is rolling right now so get ready for another good result.

Traces Of Purple She has back to back wins in Summerside and went wire to wire in both outings. Moving on up and this is a good group but with Marc in the seat we think they have some say tonight.

Ms Moyse Was hustled off the gate last week and was able to pocket ride all the way for the silver. Same spot on the gate for this one and Gilles is back so they're our value play of the day.

Value Play Ms Moyse
