

Race 1 3-4-1

Elliot Moose Raced great last week tracking all the way and then fired home in 28.3 to get that first win of 2021. He gets the same class, same post, same driver and possibly the same result tonight.

Justcallmedoc Set some brisk early fractions last out and had to settle for the show spot. Gets a similar spot on the gate and game plan may be the same tonight only this time he may go all the way.

Shakemeup Hanover He still hasn't found the top three this year but wasn't that far away last time. The good news is he draws the rail and will get a trip so if you're searching for value this could be the one.

Long Shot Play Mr Rielly

Race 2 3-6-1

Three Truths Had post seven in his last start and never really got into it finishing seventh. Drops a couple of notches and remember he did have the fastest win time on the page in 2020 so we expect him to be a player in here.

Whims Drop Off Take a closer peek at that last line and you can see he was closing hard at the wire. He's another class dropper and did have five wins last year so it may be wise to put them in your wagers.

Arnoldthepaperboy He hasn't had much to cheer about so far this season but he did have three wins in 2020. Gets a new pilot and will be covered up for most it so they're a good option to round out the tri.

Race 3 5-3-7

Woodmere Fenn Seems to be improving with every start and just missed the board in his last effort. He lines up in the same spot and Gilles returns so get ready for that first lifetime win.

Beach Chair We liked that start two back in Summerside where he followed all the way and finished a strong third. Makes the move to Charlottetown and if he gets that trip again will hit the ticket.

CL Gangsta Boy He's had a nice start to the meet but can't quite find the winners circle. Has to move outside and we'll see what Mike decides to do but with the way he's racing they could be first, second, or third.

Race 4 4-5-6

Betterthanbutter He crossed the line first last week but was placed second when the results went official. Gets a mid pack post tonight and should be up near the pace so expect to see him smiling for the camera.

Initial Concept He's been sharp to start the year and was a bang up third from post seven in Summerside. Slightly better post for this one and Dowling is back in the sulky so we say first or second tonight.

Im Thinking Excellent effort last time finishing second and storming home in 28.3. Moves back outside and Kenny is rolling so they could come calling late and get a piece of it.

Race 5 4-5-1

Dustylanegoliath Was put on the point last week and never looked back scoring in an impressive 1:55. He may not get that trip tonight but if he closes in 27 and change they could reach up for the threeppeat.

Well Ell Blasted off the wings and dominated from gate to wire in 1:54.1. He already has three wins on the season and with Marc at the controls we won't be shocked if they hit the wire first.

Silverhill Buddy First, second, and third in his last three starts and just missed by a neck to Disneyman. Lands on the cones and you have to think he'll get a trip from here so put him in your tickets.

Race 6 4-6-3

Mick Dundee He hasn't been able to find the top three in a while but was up against some nice company. Takes a dip and we're betting Donnie will have him well placed so we predict he returns to his winning ways.

Melanies Magic Second and third in his first two starts and almost got there last week. Moves up slightly and gets the same post so if Jason has him in the mix when they turn for home they'll have a big say before it's over.

Silverhilllightnin Check out that start two back where he drafted all the way and got the bronze. Remains at the same level and the price will be friendly so they're a good bet for the show dough.

Race 7 5-2-7

Usurper Made an early break and wasn't able to recover last week. Don't forget he already has a couple of wins this year and Brodie knows him well so we're wagering they rebound with a win.

World Wonder We liked that start three back where he won for fun and closed in a snappy 28.4. Draws a prime time spot on the wings and Kenny gets the call so we think they rally for the deuce.

Outrageous Story Another one that made a break last out and couldn't deliver as the post time favourite. It won't be easy from out here but we're confident Gilles maps out a trip and lands in the top three.

Most Probable Usurper

Race 8 4-3-1

Cowboy Logic He's starting to round into form and was a very good third to Sock It Away. Gets post four and those closing panels say a lot so we think Steven gets him there tonight.

Legendary Ron May be the sharpest horse on PEI right now and if you need more proof take a look at his last five lines. He's back inside and Barrieau hops on board so we aren't about to leave them out.

Disneyman He's becoming one of our favourites to watch and that was an awesome first over score last week. Takes a hike and these are tough customers but he could sneak up late and get the show prize.

Race 9 2-3-7

Messier Seelster Came off the bench last time and led for a long way before fading to a fourth place finish. Takes a minor drop and Marc's had success with him in the past so we'll put them on top.

Rockin Indy We thought he would be better last week but never really fired from the seven hole. Much better post this week and Corey returns so get set for a big time bounce back.

Taladega Seelster Finished fourth last week and wasn't that far away at the finish. Has to race from the fence and adds David so they're our Red Shores value play of the day.

Value Play Taladega Seelster

Race 10 8-3-6

Time To Dance Fired off the wings last week and controlled every step of it winning in 1:52.3. He has to race from post eight this time but we're confident Campbell maps out a trip back to the winners circle.

G A Speed Sammy Check out the start two back where he tracked all the way and got up to win in 1:53.4. Gets a great spot to work from tonight and with Dowling back in the race bike we'll call for the silver.

Day Delight He's been excellent since arriving on PEI and just missed by a whisker to GA Speed Sammy. Moves outside to post six but he can fly home so we're putting him in our tickets.

Race 11 2-7-3

Lord And Legend We loved the way he raced last time drafting the entire way a finishing second to Pictonian Thunder. Gets a better post and will get a nice trip so we think they go one better tonight.

Woodmere Rollex He's been living on the edges in his last couple but did close home in 28.4. Moves closer to the fence and Brodie hops up so we say they're a factor at the finish.

Windsun Rebel We liked the way he closed last week finishing fifth but less than a length away at the wire. Same track, same class, same driver, same post and maybe a spot in the top three.
