

Race 1 2-4-7

You Aint Dolly She's missed the ticket in her last few but has been battling outside posts. Takes a dip and gets a better spot on the wings tonight so we think she hits the wire first.

I Can Do It The partnership with Marc has worked out well and they've been oh so close to getting that first win in 2021. Back in the mid pack and one of these times she's going to get there...could be tonight.

Back In the Game Check out that start four back where she tracked all the way and was a bang up second to J J Gracie. She's back at the same level and Kenny returns so we think they rally for third.

Race 2 4-3-1

The Real McCoy She was put on the point last week and led for a long way before being collared in the final strides. We're thinking the strategy will be the same in here only this time she could get it all.

Woodmere Rollersky Pretty good effort in the qualifier where she tracked along nicely and got the deuce. Lines up in the same spot and Barrieau hops on board so we predict they have a say before it's over.

A Little Sunshine Made a break in her last start but the one prior to that resulted in a third place finish. She's back on the rail and will be covered up so it may be wise to put them in your tickets.

Race 3 3-2-1

Pacific Delight It's hard to believe she's been second six straight times but the numbers on the page don't lie. The good news is she hasn't missed the top three this year and dash leader Barrieau returns so we'll put them on top.

Southfield Skye First and second in her last two and both were against the "A" fillies. Exits the stakes trail and will get a trip from here so don't be shocked if she gets the gold or silver.

Bet The Tide That was some effort last out coming first up and digging in late to win by a neck. It was an excellent performance and now she gets the rail...have to include.

Race 4 4-2-7

Dustylane Zambucca She's been living on the edges in her last couple but up against some stiff competition. Drops a couple of notches and she knows how to win so it could be picture time tonight.

Dueling Banjos We love how she raced last time coming first over and just missing by a whisker at the wire. She remains at the same level and Marc knows her well so they could be playing a winning tune.

Kiss Me Im Irish Fired off the wings at Northside and never looked back going gate to wire 1:58.4. She makes the move to PEI and Brodie has had success with her in the past so they could get the show dough.

Most Probable Dustylane Zambucca

Race 5 1-2-4

Miss Sangria She's razor sharp right now and already has four wins on her 2021 card. Lands on the pylons and there's no doubt Adam will have her in play early so we say three in a row.

Mystifying How's her year going so far? She has five wins, over $13,000 in earnings and a record of 1:56.4. It seems like she may be able to draft all the way and if that's the case could even reach up and win.

Thebossisagirl Second and third in her last two and not that far away at the finish. Draws a slightly better post and Marc gets the call so expect them to be a factor at the finish.

Race 6 6-3-4

Freddie Scratched out of his last one but was a close second two starts back. Just a reminder he did have nine wins last year and can really fly home so they're on top of our ticket.

Go With Her Has hit the board in five of six starts and visited the winner's circle three times in 2021. She gets another great post and those closing panels are solid, so we'll call for second.

Glider Man Fired to the front and went right down the road scoring over a track rated two seconds off. He gets the same track, same post, same driver and maybe the same result tonight.

Race 7 3-4-2

Woodmere Stella She almost got there, last time just missing by the slimmest of margins to Outrageous Spirit. It looks like she'll be up handy the pace and could go one better this week.

Plain Jane Been on the fringes in her last two both from outside posts. Much better starting point for this one and she needs to turn it around at some point...maybe tonight.

Howmacriverscruiser She likes post position two and if you need more proof check out her chart lines. She may be able to follow along from here and if the trip works out could add another top three to her totals.

Race 8 7-5-2

Osprey Delta She's another one who was scratched last out but was a rock solid third two starts back. She also gets to work from post seven but with Walter at the controls we think they get the gold.

Incredible Two She's racing well and was just nipped at the wire in her last assignment. She also should be well placed off the wings and if Kenny has her close at the top of the lane it could be win, place, or show.

Mykindofparty Hasn't had much to cheer about in his last two but don't forget he did go wire to wire three back. He draws inside and we're betting Corey will have him up near the action, so we think they get the show spot.

Race 9 4-2-6

Killeen Finale She's been excellent in her last two starts and was only a length away at the wire. She gets a great spot on the gate and we think Kenny will have her on or near the lead at the start and finish.

The Time To Win Has missed the ticket in her last two but was facing some real tough customers. Takes a minor drop and loves to race this level so it could be the night she lives up to her name.

Better Be In Love We went with her last week and she came through finishing third and completing our triactor ticket. She's back outside but we like playing trends so we'll call for third again.

Long Shot Play Wannashakeyourtree

Race 10 2-5-7

Emmy Lou Hayes First, second, and third in her last three and fired home in a snappy 28.4 last out. She gets a new pilot but her form is excellent, so we think they're major players in here.

Fern Hill Fancy Looked good in her first two starts and just missed to Rave Review in a blanket finish. She gets post five and Barrieau is back in the race bike, so we say they get a piece of it.

Fear The Lady She was on the edges in Truro but still paced a mile in 1:56.4. It won't be easy from out here but if you're searching for a price this could be a good value play.

Value Play Fear The Lady

Race 11 3-1-5

Dreamfair Zenfire When you look at her stats from the last two years she's racked up an eye catching eighteen wins. There's a strong chance Adam will be aiming for the front and if they do get to boss it expect to see them smiling for the camera.

Arc Light She's really starting to turn it on and wasn't that far away in Truro. She also gets the rail and seems to do her best work with Marc in the sulky so don't be surprised if they reach up and win.

Larjon Legacy Raced great in Truro and was less than a length away when it was all said and done. She's moving to post five but those closing panels are impressive so we can't leave her out.

Race 12 1-5-7

Mrs Dragonfire Check out that start four back where she left off the rail and was just nipped late. She's back at the same level and gets the pole position again but could find the winner's circle this time.

Lorne Valley Barb Made up a ton of ground three back and flew home in 29.2 to get top spot. While you're at it check out who she collared in that race and that's why we have them first and second tonight.

Traces Of Purple She's missed the board in two straight starts but did have post seven last time. Drops down the class ladder and is back outside but we're confident the Blue Knight maps out a trip into the top three.
