(12:30 PM POST TIME)

Race 1 1-3-6

JJ Gracie Made an early break in her last one and was never a factor in the race. Dropping down the class ladder and lands on the cones so she could bounce back and get win number two on the season.

Twin B Shadow Was on the edges in Summerside but not that far away at the finish. Draws another great position on the gate and should get a favourable trip so we'll call for the deuce.

The Ironman Pretty good effort in Summerside where he left from post seven and rallied late to get the bronze. Makes the move back to Charlottetown and the stats say he likes to finish third, so that's where we'll place him in here.

Race 2 5-4-2

Woodmere Androlli Had to come first over last time and missed the ticket but that was against the "A" colts. Exits the gold division and remember he has the fastest win time on the page so they could hit the wire first.

JJ Maximus First, second, and third in his past three and he flew home in 28.3 last time out. Back in the mid pack and Mark will have him well placed so get ready for another good performance.

Kharlamov He's been hit and miss in his brief racing career but did have a nice win in Summerside two starts back. Lines up in prime-time spot and if Marc can keep his mind on business, they could complete the tri.

Race 3 3-5-1

JJ Scarlett She's been on an absolute tear this season and has won races at four different tracks across the Maritimes. We're betting Gillis will be aggressive off the wings and if they do set up shop on the point could make it six in a row.

Mermaid Magic She's been sharp of late and has only missed the top three once this season. Moves to post five but those closing panels say a lot, so we say gold or silver today.

Tobins Diva We liked the way she raced last time cutting it all out and just getting nipped in a tight finish. Gets rail control and will be covered up for a long way so put them in your wagers.

Most Probable JJ Scarlett

Race 4 5-6-7

Keoper Floored He's been very good since arriving on the Island and has back to back wins in Charlottetown. Lines up in a similar spot and Kenny returns so they've got a serious shot at the natural hat trick.

Im Thinking He's been right there in his last two but can't quite find the winners circle. Moves to post six and one of these times everything will go his way so if you're looking for a friendly price this could be a good choice.

Willie Brennan Got a perfect drive from MacPhee last week and rewarded the bettors as well. He's racing from the grandstand side this week but coming off that performance we need to include.

Race 5 1-5-4

Outrageous Style Raced great in her first lifetime start reaching up late to get the gold. She's also back on the pylons and is going to get a smooth journey from here so don't be shocked if they double up.

Ultimate Long Shot When you look at the lines she's had a nice season and was an impressive winner three starts back. Gets post five and the Blue Knight is back so we think they're a factor at the finish.

Candy Apple Red Check out that start three back where she was a winner in a "B" stake at Charlottetown. She may be in line for a similar trip and Corey knows her well so they could get a piece of it.

Long Shot Play Smokin Molly

Race 6 2-1-4

Zendayacougarbeach We liked that start two back where he was a bang up second to Howmac Maximus. He's back in the same spot and if Dave can get him well placed off the gate, they could go one better today.

Woodmere Gaelic Take a look at that start four back where he tracked along and got up to win in 1:59. Draws the rail and if he gets that trip again will have a large say before it's all said and done.

Saulsbrook Raptor Finished on the fringes last out and couldn't deliver as the chalk choice. Just a reminder he does have a couple of third place finishes on his card so they could get the show dough again.

Race 7 5-1-4

Girl In A Tavern She's rolling along right now and fired home in a snappy 28.3 to get the job done in Summerside. She also has four wins on her program and lines up in the same spot so we're calling for a high five.

Woodmere Jazz Seven for seven in top threes and almost got there two back at Inverness. There's no doubt she's going to get a great trip from here and with that in mind they'll hit the podium again.

Rhojo Moe Good effort four back at Red Shores Summerside where she came first over and scored in 1:59.1. Slightly better post and Campbell returns so they could get the show prize.

Race 8 1-7-4

Three Truths He's a bit of a risky play and hasn't raced since the middle of August. The good news is he does have three wins in 2021 and Arsenaault has had success with him in the past, so we'll put them on top.

Zack The Men We all remember what he did Gold Cup Week coming first over and cruising to victory. He's back outside and we're playing a hunch Marc maps out a trip into the top three.

Hes Marvalous Five of his last six starts have been wins and he just went right down the road in Summerside. Moves to the middle and his form is excellent, so we aren't about to leave him out.

Race 9 5-1-4

Soul Assassin When you look at the numbers he's had a nice year and does have a couple of victories on his resume. Gets post five and he can really storm home so if David keeps him close, they could reach up and win.

Howmacs Hank Got to pocket ride the entire way and was rewarded with the silver. Back on the rail and his summary indicates he likes to finish second, so we'll put him in our exactors.

Tobins Burke Blasted off the wings and never looked back going wire to wire at Red Shores Summerside. It was a confidence booster and he's moving to post four so expect more of the same today.

Race 10 2-1-4

Fern Hill Gusto Braved it first over two back and was an impressive winner over Red Shores Charlottetown. He gets the same track, same post, same driver, and the same result this time.

Middleton Terror He's missed the top three in his last two attempts but was up against some top notch colts. Just a reminder he does have three wins and will be tucked in so be prepared for a good result.

Check Your Source Excellent trip two back where he was a rock solid second to Fern Hill Gusto. He gets the same post for this one and Mike is back in the bike, so we think they have a say before it's over.

Race 11 2-1-4

Red Dirt Lovenlife We were impressed with the way she raced in Summerside coming first up and getting that first career win. Back in Charlottetown and Brodie returns so they could be smiling for the camera again.

Onhotpenelope She's hit the board in four straight starts and got that first lifetime win last out. Remains on the cones and it looks like she'll be up handy the action, so we say another top three finish.

Starshipsalicia Four for seven in top three finishes and was a solid second two starts back. Much better starting point today and with Dowling in the seat they look to be players in here.

Race 12 6-5-3

Fern Hill General What a season he's putting together and has reeled off six consecutive wins to start his career. Moves to post six but we're wagering Brodie won't sit long and will be on or near the lead at the start and a winner at the finish.

St Charlesfireball Five for six in top three's and he raced very well from the seven hole in Summerside. Gets a slightly better post and those final panels are brisk so there's a chance he pulls a mild upset.

Stash It Away Awesome performance in the Joe O'Brien Gold coming first up and driving away over a track rated two seconds off. It was a terrific effort and if he does that again will be a factor at the finish.

Race 13 2-4-3

Taladega Seelster He was on the edges last time out but up against some nice company. Gets a much better post and Campbell hops up so this could be a savvy play for the punters.

Phil Dorleans He's been razor sharp for the past six weeks and was oh so close to winning two back. Takes a slight hike and Jason continues to roll so they're back on the ticket.

Creepin He enjoyed his visit to EPR and was first and second at the New Brunswick oval. Makes the trek back to PEI and always seems to be in contention so we can't leave them out.

Race 14 6-5-2

Howmacs Dragonator We like the way he raced two back tracking all the way and nabbing the silver. Takes a minor dip and dash leader Barrieau returns so they're our Red Shores value play of the day.

Tempo Seelster Was covered up all the way and hung on for the bronze last time out. He's another class dropper and can still scoot home so we say gold or silver.

Oh No He's had a good season and when you look at his stats all those second place finishes really stand out. He's back inside, will get a trip, and Brodie hops up...what's not to like?

Value Play Howmacs Dragonator
