

Race 1 2-1-4

KCK Girlies She had back to back victories during Gold Cup week and Campbell was in the bike both times. Gets a great spot to work from and this has been a successful combination so they could kick off the card with a win.

Ruby Rae Crow When you look at the stats she's had a nice year and already has ten top three finishes. The good news is she gets the rail and dash leader Barrieau returns so they're back on the podium.

Where Angels Fly She can really bust the gate and it doesn't matter where she leaves from on the wings. There's little doubt Corey will have her on the front foot and may be able to hang on for the bronze.

Race 2 3-4-1

Tobins Native Check out that start three back where he was put on the engine and wired them in 1:56.2. He gets the same track, same post, same driver, and another trip to the winner's circle tonight.

Woodmere Fenn He's put together a tidy season and already has three wins on his program. He'll likely be coming from the back and can really fly home, so we say first or second tonight.

Woodmere Beachline Been living on the edges but up against some stiff competition. Draws back inside and will get a nice journey from here so they're a good option to round out the tri.

Race 3 1-2-3

Havarti Eight for ten in top three finishes and already has four wins on the season. Back on the rail and we're wagering Paul will want to call the shots all the way to the winner's circle.

Slightly Twisted We loved the way she raced three back drafting all the way and finishing a good second to Bet The Tide. Lines up in a similar spot and if she gets the same trip will be back on the ticket.

Magical Lily Bear When you look at her lines she always seems to be hovering around the top three. Looks like she may be able to follow along from here and if that's the case may get the show spot.

Race 4 3-2-6

Pillage And Burn He's rolling along right now and has won two in a row at Red Shores Charlottetown. Back in the same spot and Kenny will be gunning early so we think they score a hat trick.

Selkirck Echo Excellent effort last time where he stormed home in 28.4 and just missed to Dam Lucky. Bumps up the class ladder and the price will be right so this could be a smart play.

Dam Lucky Braved it first over last week and was an impressive winner in 1:56.3. Moves to post six and Campbell jumps up so we're putting them back in our tickets.

Long Shot Play Shadow Of A Daut

Race 5 6-4-1

Woodmere Tesla Nine for eleven in top three's but he hasn't won since the middle of August. He's been knocking on the door in his last few and Barrieau returns so get ready for a good result.

Class Hero Took advantage of a perfect pocket ride and was able to reach up late and get it all. It was a great trip and if he closes in 28 and change again will be right there at the wire.

Dusty Lane Morgan Been battling outside posts for the past month and now he gets the pole position. He's had success on PEI in the past and with Clare at the controls we'll call for the show dough.

Race 6 3-4-5

The Twist That was some debut last Saturday night zipping to the front and going wire to wire in 1:58. We're thinking the game plan may be the same this time and if they do clear could go back to back.

JK Express We liked the way he raced two back fronting it all the way and scoring over an off track. We're wagering Kenny will have him up handy the action and if they can draft all the way might even reach up and win.

Rymar Jimbo He's been on the edges in his last couple but racing higher up the class ladder. Takes a slight dip and moves to post five so they're our Red Shores value play of the day.

Value Play Rymar Jimbo

Race 7 4-1-6

Tobins Brownie She's had an awesome year with four wins, over $36,000 in earnings and a record of 1:53.4. Lines up in the mid-pack and David will be bossing it all the way so get ready to see them smiling in the winner's circle.

Woodmere Leah She raced great at Inverness tracking the entire way and reaching up at the very end to get the victory. She's also back on the rail and will be covered up so put them in your tickets.

Elm Grove Penney She was on the fringes at EPR but was a winner four back on PEI. It won't be easy from out here, but they could land on the scene late and make some noise before it's over.

Race 8 6-4-1

The Rev He's been right there in his last two and was a rock solid second to Time To Dance. Takes a minor drop and gets to avoid the bearcats so we think he returns to his winning ways.

Spack Jarrow He's been razor sharp for the past six weeks and has been first, second, and third in his last three. He also gets the same post and Corey knows him well, so they look to be big time contenders again.

Mick Dundee Was issued a parking ticket last time out and paid the price finishing fifth. He's on the rail this time and will be tucked in so we think he bounces back into the top three.

Race 9 4-2-6

Dustylanegoliath He's had a terrific season and his stats jump off the page with eight victories, over $59,000 in the bank and a mark of 1:53. Moves to the mid pack and will be well positioned so get ready for win number nine.

Bettim Again He's been racing the Ontario circuit and was a gate to wire winner three back at Georgian Downs. Makes the move back to PEI and Campbell gets the call so they'll be serious contenders in here.

Pictonian Thunder He flies under the radar a little bit but is putting together an excellent season. He's moving outside but with the way he's racing we think they overcome it and rally for the bronze.

Race 10 2-5-4

Mystifying How's her year going so far? She has nine wins, over $37,000 in purse money and record of 1:54.2. She's also has wins at six Maritime tracks and Barrieau returns so they're on top of the ticket.

Plain Jane There's no doubt she's racing well and has finished second three straight times. Gets post five and will be up near the pace so we'll call for deuce one more time.

Emmy Lou Hayes She missed the ticket in Inverness but had hit the board in her three previous starts. Moves back to the middle and likes to race from that spot so we'll call for third.

Race 11 5-3-4

Dreamfair Zenfire Awesome trip last week coming first up and winning for fun over an off track. She lines up in the same spot tonight and with Campbell in the race bike they hit double digit wins in 2021.

Larjon Legacy She's had a terrific year but only has one win to show for it. We've said it before she's going to get a perfect trip one of these times and get that long overdue win...maybe tonight.

Ladylike First and second in her last two and she just missed by a whisker to Arc light at EPR. She's back in the mid-pack and those closing panels are snappy so they could be first, second, or third.

Race 12 1-2-5

Woodmere Stealdeal He's put together another fantastic season with five wins, over $45,000 in earnings and a record of 1:52.2. He gets the rail and we're betting Marc will be on top at every call so expect to see them smiling for the camera.

Rotten Ronnie Seven for eight in top three finishes and he's been right there with the best colts in the Maritimes. Lines up in a prime-time spot and may be able to draft all the way and get the silver.

Elliot Moose The Moose has been on the loose, all season long and has three wins on his card. Moves to post five and can really storm home so they're a solid choice to complete the tri.

Most Probable Woodmere Stealdeal

Race 13 6-4-5

Time To Dance Blasted off the wings at EPR and was pointed right down the highway dominating from start to finish. Makes the move back to PEI and gets post six but he'll overcome it and win again.

Bugsy Maguire That was an excellent effort last Saturday night going wire to wire and winning by over six lengths. He draws a mid-pack post and Adam returns so we think they get up for the deuce.

Cowboy Logic He's been racing pretty well and did rally to finish second to Buggy Maguire last week. Draws post five and if Steven has him close when they turn for home, they could get the show prize.

Race 14 1-2-3

Rockin Indy We went with him last time and he raced great just getting edged out by Pillage and Burn. Moves up a notch and gets the rail so we think this is the week he hits the wire first.

Good Eye Hawkeye He's missed the ticket in three straight but was up against some tough customers. Takes a slight hike and gets a better post so it would be wise to include them in your wagers.

The Big Chase He raced well last week tracking all the way and just missed to Usurper. Remains at the same level and gets another good post so it could be gold, silver, or bronze.
