(12:30 PM POST TIME)

Race 1 3-2-1

Cinder Angelina Been living on the edges in her previous two but was closer than you think last time out. Just a reminder she does have a couple of wins and Jaycob knows her very well so they could kick off the card with a win.

Windmerenoharmdone Tracked along nicely last week and was rewarded with the show dough. Lines up in a similar spot and Adam will have her on the front foot so we think they go one better in here.

J J Kinley She had to brave it first over last week and just missed hitting the ticket. Back on the rail this time and the stats say she likes to finish third so that's where we'll place her today.

Long Shot Play I Can Do It

Race 2 6-5-4

Rollin Doubles Fired to the front last week and never looked back cruising to victory in 2:00.4. Moves outside but coming off that performance don't be shocked if he goes back to back.

Woodmere Sheldon That was a nice win four back where he went coast to coast and scored in 2:02.3. Draws post five and those closing panels are solid so with that in mind we'll call for the silver.

Tobago Paradise Pretty good effort in his second career start drafting along and getting the deuce. Moves to the middle and should get a decent trip so we think he lands on the podium again.

Race 3 1-2-3

Magical Cowgirl She's rolling along right now and already has ten wins on her sparkling resume. There's no doubt she's going to get a smooth journey from here and with Corey at the controls they hit the wire first.

Outrageous Spirit We liked the way she raced last time drafting all the way and getting the runner up spot. Lines up in favourable post and will be up handy the action so she could add another top three to her totals.

Jays Little Spark Have a closer peek at the line from last week and you'll see she was closing in at the wire. Moving on up the class ladder and the price will right so they're a good bet to complete the tri.

Race 4 6-1-5

Bashful Bree It didn't go as planned last week but prior to that she was first and second. Draws post six for this assignment and has the only win on the page, so we think she bounces back to the winner's circle.

Mds Girl She raced well in her first for a purse and just missed hitting the top three. The good news is she's back inside and Merner jumps up so it would be wise to put them in your wagers.

Caribbean Tides She had to do it the hard way last week going first up and finishing on the fringes. Back in a similar spot this time and she likes to finish third, so it makes sense to put her here.

Race 5 1-4-7

Howmacrivercruiser Check out that start three back where she tracked all the way and was a bang up second to Lock Her Up. Lands on the cones and will be tucked in so she just might reach up and win.

Akrotiri She was flying on the end of it last week and just ran out of race track at the wire. Gets a better spot to work from and her form is excellent so she could crack the win column in 2021.

Dueling Banjos She's missed the board in four straight attempts but does have the most wins on the page. It won't be easy from out here but we're confident Marc maps out trip and has a say before it's over.

Value Play Akrotiri

Race 6 4-5-2

Osprey Delta She was put on the point last week and led for a long way only to be collared in the final strides. It was an excellent effort and the tactics could be the same only this time they go all the way.

Freddie We went with him last week and he delivered big time bagging win number 75 of his brilliant career. He gets the same track, same post, same class, same driver and possibly the same result this time

Glider Man He was able to recover from an early break and rallied late to grab the bronze. Don't forget he's also put together a tidy season and Adam has had success with him in the past so this could be a smart play.

Race 7 5-4-6

Little Miss Ava She's been knocking on the door in her last two starts but can't quite find the winner's circle. Slightly better post and one of these times everything will go her way...we say today.

Somebodys Me When you look at the summary she's had a nice year and does have three victories on her 2021 papers. Much better starting point and the Blue Knight is back so we'll put them in our exactors.

Catchafewrays She was able to follow along last week and hung on for the show spot. Moves to the fence but in a compact field like this we think she overcomes it and is a factor at the finish.

Race 8 5-2-3

Arc Light She hasn't had to much to cheer about of late and has missed the ticket in four straight starts. Takes a dip and does have seven wins on the season so this could be the day she returns to her winning ways.

Tell Me Why How about that effort last week storming home late to get the gold. We've said it before she's always in the mix and now draws inside so expect more of the same today.

Ill Tell Me Ma When you look down the lines she's always hovering around the top three. She gets another prime-time spot on the wings and with Dowling in the race bike they could be first, second, or third.

Most Probable Arc Light

Race 9 6-2-3

Miss Sangria She never really got into it last week and had to settle for a fifth place finish. She also draws post six again but does have eight wins on the year so we're predicting a big time bounce back.

La Vie En Rose She's been racing well the past few weeks but can't quite crack the top three. Drops a notch and we're wagering Adam will have her well spotted so they could make some noise before it's all said and done.

Good Luck Kathy Has missed the board in her last two starts but was racing at higher levels. Slides down the class ladder and the price will be friendly so if you're searching for value this could be the one.

Race 10 3-2-4

Do U Mind She hasn't had much luck since arriving on the Island and was interfered with last time. Takes a dip, draws inside and Bradley returns... time to put it all together.

Howmac Blaze Check out that start three back where she was put on the engine and went right down the highway. Remains at the same level and Corey is rolling so we're going to include and so should you.

Better Than Men She's been razor sharp for the past six weeks and if you need more proof take a look at the chart lines. Draws the mid pack and with the way she is racing we aren't about to leave her out.

Race 11 3-5-2

Ladylike She went a huge trip from post seven reaching up at the very end to get it all. She gets a great spot to work from today and is a former track record holder so don't be shocked to see her smiling for the camera.

Dreamfair Zenfire Fired off gate in the blink of an eye and won for fun over an off track. Moves to post five and we're betting Jason will be aggressive off the wings so if they do set up shop on the front it could seal the deal.

Filly Forty Seven Check out that start four down where she motored to the lead and went gate to wire in 1:55.3. She's back in the same spot today and seems to do her best work with Marc so we'll call for third.

Race 12 5-4-7

Eagle Jolt He's putting the finishing touches on a fantastic career and was an impressive winner last Sunday. Moves off the rail and those closing quarters say a lot so we won't be surprised if he wins again.

Southwind Bronn We liked the way he raced last week coming first up and finishing a game third. He's also dropping down and gets a better post, so they look to be contenders in here.

Silverhill Buddy Second and third in his last two and both of those were at the same level. He's racing from the grandstand side and Dowling returns so they could be in the mood for an upset.
