

Race 1 3-4-6

Three Truths Was on fire when he first moved into the Wilkie stable but has been struggling a bit lately. Some class relief might be just what the doctor ordered.

Windemere Albert Anything close to last week's performance puts him here or in the spot above it.

Hemingway He won't be sitting any worse than sixth and that should make his closing kick come into play.

Race 2 2-1-5

Flameproof Hanover Dowling will be aggressive off the hop and if he can secure any fractions he will be tough to knock off.

Brookdale Ollie Draws inside after a couple weeks on the outside.

Big Bad Bruiser Has been very competitive in this class every single week so expect more of the same.

Race 3 4-3-2

The Twist Now that he has a start under his belt we'll treat him as a major threat.

Uncle Bill Was placed back from the triactor last week but should be a big player again today from post 3.

Woodmere Fenn Made a big time power move past the half his last start but understandably got a little tired at the end. With him drawing inside his chances go way up.

Race 4 6-1-5

Pictonian I Am The outside draw complicates things but the company he has been keeping all Summer makes this group pale in comparison. Top call.

Brushcut Will get a tidy, short trip from the inside.

Luigi Bizacko Week after week this horse shows more and more raw speed as he puts it all together. Keep an eye on him again today.

Race 5 5-7-1

Adventure Luck Finally gets away from post 8 and remains at the same level that he has shown so much domination in.

Tempo Seelster There is no question that he been struggling lately compared to the horse we know he can be. The classy veteran will re-emerge yet and dropping to the bottom class may bring him out.

Woodmere Soul Sits on a pair of thirds with Merner at the lines so let's call for another considering he has rail control.

Race 6 5-1-2

Chocolate Swirl Has a slightly better draw and there is no question he will be hard to deny.

Good Eye Hawkeye Has put together a very nice season with six wins including a 1:53.4 record. With rail control we see him adding to those totals.

Unique Beach Gets his best draw in awhile and watching this guy every week we think the best is yet to come from him.

Longshot Play Unique Beach

Race 7 4-2-3

Shadow Of A Daut If Dowling can find the lead there may be no catching him.

Likely To Win Made an uncharacteristic break his last start but reunites with Merner this week who knows him better than anyone.

Gascoigne Sundae Has a wicked finishing kick and with the drop in class he should mow down some foes at the end.

Race 8 3-2-1

Moonwriter It's been a long time since he has dropped down in class but he is always right there at this level and we'll treat him as the one to beat.

Burn Out Hanover Will be heading back to the lead in here and could hang around for big slice.

Nogreatmischief Will love the hot fractions that are bound to come and will draw himself right into the final photo.

Value Play Burn Out Hanover

Race 9 4-6-1

Pictonian Storm This guy can do it any way you want him to so his options towards victory are endless.

Kataparka Was fired up his last start even though it was his first trip behind the gate in months. He'll be more race ready this week so we like him for part of it.

Winter Blast He can't be ignored off the rail in any class.

Race 10 3-1-5

Pillage And Burn The front is his to take, the question is can he get the fractions just right to keep the rail horse away from him in the stretch.

Doc Darryl Has been the hottest horse in Eastern Canada the month of November and with rail control he will be tough again today.

Mantario Thrives with Dowling in the bike so we're not about to leave him out.

Race 11 1-2-3

The Rev There has been no classier Atlantic bred in the history of harness racing on the Eastern Seaboard of Canada. He's fresh off a pair of wins so his confidence his way up plus he controls the rail. He's our top pick.

Screen Test He can leave and he can finish but whatever goes down at the start there is little question he will be very close to the wire for photo time.

Mc Pat Raced well his last start so we'll look for a repeat.

Race 12 2-5-1

My Land He will win a few more times before he finds a field that can stop him.

Cowboy Logic Not too often you see this guy down so far in class so we expect him to start making his way back up after today.

Legendary Ron Loves the inside draw and should be able to draft along for a chunk of the finish.

Most Probable My Land
