

Race 1 6-3-5

T LS Betty She was absolutely flying on the end of it Saturday and just missed in a tight finish. She's also hit the board in both of her starts so get ready for that first lifetime win.

Camelot Terror Take a peek at that line from last August and you'll notice she brushed home in a brisk 28.4. She looks to have the step to compete in here, so we'll call for the deuce.

MDS Girl Been on the edges in her first two attempts of 2022 but did close home in 29.4. She gets a slightly better post, and the price will be right so we're putting her in the triactor.

Race 2 2-5-1

Magical Cowgirl Saw her top three streak come to an end but remember that was from post eight. Much better starting point tonight and Gilles will have her in play early so she could return to her winning ways.

Saulsbrook Ocean She's been racing well since returning to the Island and was a winner two back. Lines up in a similar spot and Dale knows her well so we say first or second.

Good Luck Kathy Looked pretty good in her seasonal debut finishing third and closing in 29.1. Lands on the pylons and the stats indicate she likes to finish third so that's where we'll put her tonight.

Race 3 4-3-1

Saltwater Storm We went with her on Saturday and she delivered scoring in 1:59.4. She's back in the mid pack and will be up handy the pace so it could be two in a row.

Red Dirt Lovenlife We loved the way she finished up last out scooting down the passing lane to grab the show dough. She gets a better spot to work from and Corey returns so it could be picture time.

Gracies Glory She was lightly raced in 2021 but did have a couple of wins on her resume. The good news is she gets the rail and with Marc on board they could be first, second, or third.

Race 4 3-4-5

Fusspot She was sent off as the chalk choice but faded to a seventh place finish. Just a reminder she did win four times last year and with Dowling at the wheel expect a big-time bounce back.

Lock Her Up Another one who had four wins on her 2021 papers and a record of 1:57.2. Moves to the middle and Kenny gets along well with her so don't be shocked if they have a big say in the outcome.

I Can Do It She's had an excellent start to her season and was just nipped in a photo finish. She also gets a new pilot and we like playing trends so they could be smiling for the camera.

Long Shot Play Mrs Dragonfire

Race 5 3-1-2

Miss Sangria She looked to be in a good spot on Saturday but missed the board and finished fourth. She hasn't been this low in a while and is going to rebound at some point...we say tonight.

Southern Heart She's been on the edges in her first two starts but not that far away at the finish. She's going to get a tidy trip from here and with Brodie in the seat we need to include.

Windmerenoharmdone She's another one who's been on the fringes but did come home in 29 and change. We're playing a bit of a hunch, but the price will be friendly, so we'll call for the bronze.

Most Probable Miss Sangria

Race 6 2-1-4

Ms Moyses What a year she had in 2021 racking up an impressive eight victories and a record of 1:55.3. She takes dip and Adam will have her well placed so we think they hit the wire first.

The Time To Win She put together a top notch 2021 season which included five trips to the winner's circle. We've said it before this is a good combination so it could be the night she lives up to her name.

Elm Grove Mistress She raced great last week and fired home in 28.4 to secure the show spot. She also has great gate speed and Jason may be gunning early so this could be a savvy choice.

Long Shot Play Ill Tell Me Ma

Race 7 1-5-4

Tylers Beach Boy What a big trip he went last week tracking all the way before reaching up to win in the stretch. Bumps up the class ladder but coming off that performance he could go back-to-back.

The Big Chase Fired off the wings last week and led for a long way before settling for a fourth place finish. The game plan may be the same this week only this time he hangs on for a piece of it.

Poplar Artie He deserves a tip of the hat for that long first over score in his Island debut. It was an excellent effort and with Marc back in the bike we aren't about to leave them out.

Race 8 1-3-5

Miami Seelster Blasted off the wings and never looked back going coast to coast in 1:58.2. We're thinking David will want to boss it again and if that's the case there's a strong chance they double up.

Woodmere Rollily She looked terrific on Saturday night drawing off to win by over five lengths. Takes a slight hike but there's no doubt she's going to get a favourable journey and may even reach up and win again.

JM Sportsfan We liked the way she finished up in the qualifier storming home in a sizzling 27.4. Don't forget she did have four wins last year and is a solid option to round out the tri.

Race 9 1-6-2

Ladylike She fired to the lead last week and led for a long way only to be collared at the very end. The good news is she lands on the rail and with Barrieau at the controls they go one better this time.

Dreamfair Zenfire When you look at the win column from 2021 those 17 victories jump off the page. She's also coming off an impressive qualifier and it's hard to go against her so don't be surprised if she gets the gold.

Tobins Brownie Took advantage of a perfect pocket ride and reached up at the wire to get that first win of 2022. She's back inside and up against some good company but will be heard from before it's all said and done.
