

Race 1 2-5-3

Meraki He's been facing the best colts in the region and more than holding his own. Exits the stakes trail and lands in a prime- time spot so we won't be shocked if he kicks off the card with a win.

King Of Kensington You had to like the way he raced in his debut closing in 29.2 to secure the bronze. Moves away from the rail but coming off that effort he could go one better this time.

Redland Wrangler Another one who looked good in his first for a purse and rallied to get the deuce. Makes the trek to Charlottetown and Murphy will have him well placed so we'll call for third.

Race 2 6-1-4

Ashes To Ashes He was storming home on the end of it last time and just missed in a blanket finish. He's also on the outside looking in again but with Murphy on board they could hit the wire first.

Poplar Artie He's been a fringe player the last few starts but really not that far away. Remains at the same level, lands on the pylons and adds Campbell...what's not to like?

The Twist He's another one that's been living on the edges and continues to slide down the class ladder. It looks like he has the step to compete in here so we're playing a hunch and putting him in the tri.

Race 3 5-4-1

Better On Than Off Check out that line two down where Campbell put him on the point in Truro and they went right down the highway. Makes the move to PEI and the game plan may be the same so be prepared for a good result.

Mr Stanley We went with him last time and he delivered big time winning by over six lengths. Lines up in the same spot and with Steven back in the bike it could be two in a row.

Century J Rock He's been rocking and rolling to start his career and closed out in a snappy 28.2. Draws the rail and there's no doubt he'll get a sweet journey so he could score a natural hat trick.

Long Shot Play JJ Tommy

Race 4 2-4-1

Selkirk Echo He missed ticket in his last assignment but did fire home in 27.3. Just a reminder that was from post seven and now he gets a much better starting point so expect a big time bounce back.

Sports Royalty He's had an excellent start to his campaign and paced a huge trip last time out. Moves to the mid pack and his form is excellent so we aren't about to leave him out.

Doc Darryl He's been up against some stiff competition and has missed the board in three straight starts. Takes a dip and gets rail control so he could come calling late and make some noise.

Race 5 4-2-3

Tradition We had him for part of it last week and he raced great cruising to victory and getting win number three on the season. Lines up in a similar spot and with the way he can close we'll put him in the win column again.

Pictonian I Am He's been sharp for the past month and if you need more proof take a look at the stats. Slides over to post two and will get a favourable trip so put him in the exactors.

Jafar Du Lac We liked the way he raced two down tracking all the way and hanging on for the bronze. He's back in Charlottetown and Campbell jumps up so we'll take a swing and call for the show prize.

Most Probable Tradition

Race 6 2-3-6

West Coast Kid He got into an early tussle last time and had to settle for a fourth place finish. We're thinking Dowling will be pressing the pace from here and it could be a wire-to-wire score.

Hemingway He didn't really seem to fire last week but when you look at the chart line was less than two lengths away. Drops a notch and if Merner can keep him close, they could sneak onto the ticket.

Bonitas Sunshine He hasn't had much racing luck of late but did win three times last year. Those closing quarters really stand out so he could arrive on the scene late and have a big say.

Race 7 1-3-6

Raise You Twenty He's been on the edges in his first two attempts but did win seven times last year. Slides down the class ladder and Campbell returns so it's time to put it all together.

Jeb It's hard to believe he turned 10 when the calendar flipped to 2022. He has tons of back class and Hughes knows him best so if he's within striking distance at the top of the lane they could be part of it.

Painted Pony finished at the back. Moves to post six and Corey hops up for a spin so they're a good choice to complete the triactor.

Race 8 1-2-3

Rockin Novel He had to brave it first over last week and paid the price fading to an eighth place finish. The good news is he gets the rail and will be tucked in so with that in mind he's on top of the ticket.

Instant Shadow He came off the bench in Woodstock and wasn't much of a factor. Don't forget he did win five times last year and will be up handy the pace, so we say gold or silver.

Well Lets See Take a peek at the start four back where he closed in 29.1 and just missed in a tight finish. Now he's on the Island and with Campbell on board they could be first, second, or third.

Value Play ER Quinn

Race 9 1-2-3

JM Sportsfan She was oh so close to winning last time and just missed by a whisker at the very end. Draws the rail and is knocking on the door for a win so there's a strong chance it happens tonight.

The Lady Sheriff To say she's sharp may be an understatement and has reeled of three straight victories. Bumps up the class ladder and can really fly home so it could be a Red Shores grand slam.

Rock The Baby When you look at the numbers she's had a nice year and does have three wins on her papers. Moves in a couple of spots on the wings and will be up close so we'll call for the show dough.

Race 10 4-5-3

Outrageous Style Seven for seven in top threes and already had four wins on her sparkling resume. She's facing older company tonight but with Bradley in the seat they could win again.

Elm Grove Mistress She's on a big time roll right now and just got collared in the final strides. We're thinking Hughes will want to call the shots and if they do clear to the lead will be tough to reel in.

The Time To Win She raced pretty well last week and was closer than you think when it was all said and done. Takes a slight hike and she can scoot home so expect her to be a factor at the finish.

Race 11 1-5-7

Three Trick Gainer We loved his effort last week and he was closing hard just missing at the wire. It was an excellent performance and if he does that again get ready to see him smiling for the camera.

Boys Turn He was in against a good group and just a reminder they were going a good clip. Takes a slight drop but he's been here before so expect him to be right there at the wire.

Howmacs Dragonator He's been excellent for over six weeks and the chart lines back that up. It won't be easy from out here but if you're searching for value this could be a smart play.

Race 12 5-2-3

Moonwriter He's missed the ticket in his last couple but look who he was racing against. Moves over to post five but did win nine times last year so he could close the card with a victory.

The Big Chase He's been a contender in four straight and hit the ticket every time. There's no doubt he has great gate speed so expect him to be on the front foot and maybe go coast to coast.

Windsong Quincy He was skimming the cones last week and reached up late to get it all. It was a confidence booster and Hughes is above the wheels so put them in your Super Hi 5.
