

Race 1 2-1-3

Blood Money He's missed the board in his last three but was up against the best pacers in the Maritimes. Takes a slight drop and gets a great spot to work from so he could return to his winning ways.

Big Bad Bruiser He's been right there in his last two starts and not that far away from the top three. Gets rail control again and Spence will have him tucked in for a long way so put them in your tickets.

Dylan Sam He hasn't had much luck of late but was up against some nice company. Makes the trek to Charlottetown and the stats say he likes to finish third so that's where we'll put him tonight.

Race 2 4-1-7

Roses For Jennie She's had a tidy start to her season and the numbers on the page back it up. We're betting Hughes will have her in play from the word go and they could get the roses in here.

Windemere Miagrace She's hit the ticket in half her starts but can't quite find the win column. The good news is she draws the rail and will be covered up, so we'll call for the silver tonight.

The Generals Pride She's been sharp the past two weeks and was smiling for the camera both times. Moves to the fence but her form is excellent so with that in mind we have to include.

Race 3 1-2-5

Navalny We went with him last time and he raced great going gate to wire in the blink of an eye. Bumps up the class ladder and the tactics could be the same, so we won't be shocked if he doubles up.

Legendary Ron We've said it before he's had an awesome year and proved it again wiring them at Northside. Makes the move back to PEI but he's been here before and Spence knows him well so expect them to have a big say.

Soccer Hanover He's been living on the edges the past three weeks but up against some mighty tough customers. Just a reminder he does have six wins this year and the price will be right so this could be a savvy choice.

Long Shot Play Cowboy Logic

Race 4 2-3-6

Candy Apple Red She didn't look out of place in the Stanfield and just missed the top three. Arrives on the Island and she already has a win in Summerside, so we think she does the same in Charlottetown tonight.

Cutter Loose We liked the way she raced two back storming home in 28.4 to grab the gold. She draws a similar spot on the gate and with Campbell on board they'll be first or second.

Heatherspet You have to admit she's pretty consistent and if you need more proof take a look at her summary. She's back outside but we're confident Merner maps out a trip onto the ticket.

Race 5 1-2-3

Diamond Call He had to come first over last week and couldn't deliver as the chalk choice. Remains at the same level and lands on the pylons so we're expecting a better result and so should you.

Silverhillightnin Check out that start three down on his card and you'll see he was a winner for Campbell at this level. Slides into post two and already has four wins on the season so get ready for a good result.

Father Of The Year We liked the way he raced thee back tracking all the way and securing the show dough. He gets a great spot to race from and the price will be friendly so he's our value play of the day.

Value Play Father Of The Year

Race 6 3-1-2

T LS Betty She hasn't had much luck at the draw but is in the mix week in and week out. Now she gets post three and Merner will have her in play early so they could hit the wire first.

Kinda Like Royalty That start in Summerside three back was impressive fronting it all the way and scoring in 1:58.2. There's little doubt she'll be guarding the cones and could go right down the road again.

Stonebeachlily First, second, and third in her last three and she was charted in 1:58 at Truro. Makes the journey to PEI and Doucet is down to drive so if you're searching for value this could be the one.

Race 7 3-5-4

Mile Hill Wille He looked like his old self last week firing to the front and winning by two and change. Now he gets post three and MacDonald hops up to drive so we say two in a row.

Sailor Blue She's had a fantastic year and already has the most wins on the page. Moves outside to post five but with Murphy at the controls there's a strong chance they hit a Red Shores grand slam.

Freddie He made his way to Woodstock and looked rock solid cruising to victory by seven lengths. Draws the same spot on the Island and he knows how to win so it could be gold, silver, or bronze.

Race 8 1-4-2

Mystical Gal She's put together a dynamite season and already has a couple of wins to show for it. It's looks like she may be able to draft from here and if the trip works out may even reach up and win.

Tobins Diva We went with her as our value play last week and she delivered giving her backers a nice pay day. It was also a confidence booster and with the way she can close could get it all again.

Cougar On A Terr Blasted off the wings at Inverness and led for a long way before just getting nipped at the wire. There's a good chance she'll be up handy the action and could hang around for part of it.

Race 9 8-1-6

Screen Test He raced great in Summerside and just missed by the slimmest of margins. He'll have to race from the grandstand side but MacPherson knows him best so they could land on the scene late and make some noise.

Mantario He was grinding first up last time and had to settle for a fourth place finish. The one prior to that was excellent and if that's the trip he gets tonight it could be picture time again.

Burn Out Hanover He's raced some nice horses all year long and hasn't looked out of place. Now he's on the outside looking in but can really fly home so we think he has a say before it's over.

Race 10 5-2-4

Therealprincess How's her year going so far? She's a perfect six for six in the win column, banked over $47,000 in earnings, and taken a record of 1:54.3. She's definitely the real deal and MacPherson will have her well spotted so expect more of the same tonight.

JJ Scarlett That trip at Red Shores Summerside during Governor's Plate week hops off the page. We're wagering Doucet will be aggressive off the wings and if they do set up shop on the front will be a factor at the finish.

Woodmere Jazz She's been on the fringes in her last couple but does have two wins on her papers. Remains in the mid pack and with Campbell at the wheel we think she rebounds into the top three.

Most Probable Therealprincess

Race 11 8-4-6

Share The Moment She may be the sharpest horse in the Maritimes and just missed in her last two attempts. It won't be a picnic from post eight but with MacDonald in the bike we think they overcome it and get the job done.

Tobins Brownie She's been battling outside posts the past few weeks but still was a winner two down. Much better starting point and Dowling will be gunning early so expect a good performance.

Filly Forty Seven She raced well last time following along and nabbing the show prize. Just a reminder she did win nine times last year and Campbell knows her best so this could be a wise choice.

Race 12 3-4-6

American Risk He's raced the big dogs all summer long and been very competitive most of the time. Lands on the Island and Campbell will be pushing the pace so it could be the night he finds the winner's circle.

Rose Run Quest When you look at the stats he's had a very nice season and been up against the bearcats for most of it. Moves to the middle and with Merner on board they'll be right there when it's all said and done.

Bugsy Maguire Take a peek at that start two back where he went a huge mile at Red Shores Summerside. Don't forget he has 14 wins over the past two seasons so it would be smart to put him in your tickets.

Race 13 5-1-3

Dreamfair Zenfire She's on top of her game right now and has back-to-back wins over Red Shores Charlottetown. Moves one spot out on the wings and Campbell is rolling so she could score a natural hat trick.

Acefortyfour Dome She never really got into it last time but remember that was from post six. Now she gets the rail and will be covered up the entire way, so we say gold or silver this time.

Ladylike She's missed the ticket in her last two assignments but was closer than you think last time. She's back inside and with Dowling at the controls don't be surprised if they get a share.

Race 14 4-1-7

Ideal Perception He's been razor sharp at Grand River in Ontario and just went gate to wire in 1:51.3. He also won his Trial in 2021 and was second in the Gold Cup final. MacDonald will have him rolling early so if they do control it from the hop, it could seal the deal.

Time To Dance He's been the king of the Maritimes the past few seasons and in excellent form again this year. He also won his Trial in 2021 and was a crowned champion of the Gold Cup in 2020. There's no doubt he's going to get a tidy trip and Campbell will have him well placed so we won't be shocked if they capture Trial one.

Cadillac Bayama What a monster trip he went a Woodbine Mohawk Park storming home in a snappy 26.3 to nab the gold. Makes the move to PEI and will race on a half mile track but if he closes in 27 and change expect him to come calling late and have a large say in the outcome.

Race 15 4-1-6

Sintra He's been first, second, and third in his last thee starts and closed out in an amazing 26 seconds two down at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It looks like he still has lots of step and MacDonald is home for the drive, so we think they book a first-class ticket to the Gold Cup Final.

Legion Seelster He's been terrific at Woodbine Mohawk Park and go the better of Sintra last time out. Just a friendly reminder he knows this track well and finished third in his trial and the Gold Cup final last year. He's also on the rail and will be tucked in so he'll get another crack at Gold Cup glory.

Island Beach Boy He's been very impressive since arriving on the Island and those chart lines jump off the page. He can also slingshot off the wings so we'll see what MacPherson decides to do but expect him to be gunning early and if he's well placed could land in the final.
