

Race 1 4-5-2

JJ Linda Got the job done in her latest start in a new career best. Top call.

Roses For Jennie Has been good for Team Hughes and will be a top play today.

Whosyourfather Was razor sharp her last start for Campbell and with him returning to the seat you have to think she has a big time shot.

Race 2 3-4-2

Gettin Salty The outside two fillies are the class of the field and the post draw was King last time. Gettin Salty was handing the cold shoulder by her competition her last start but should be sailing to the front and controlling every step today.

Camco Erin Will be first or second again but our top choice should be hard to get around.

Oceanview Miley Was good her first start in the Rennie barn and should be good again today.

Race 3 2-1-4

Woodmere Jazz – Locked in solid her last start in Inverness and should be ready to explode into some open air today regardless of the trip.

Boo Yaya – Will be pointed forward at the start and will be well positioned to get a big slice of it.

Ultimate Longshot – Took the overland route to victory in Inverness and will be a top contender today.

Race 4 3-1-2

Irish Ray Has not seen anything even close to defeat in his career and we don't see any challenges to that win streak today.

My Secret Ability Has the rail. We like him.

Windemeregotmuscle Will get the tow behind the top choices.

Most Probable Irish Ray

Race 5 2-3-4

Candy Apple Red Has found the sledding tough at the top level but is a top flight filly against her grassroots foes. She draws well and retains MacPherson so we think it is picture time.

Mds Girl Literally anything could happen in this class of evenly matched fillies but we like Campbell in the bike behind her so we will play her in the ticket.

Checkers Pride Is a huge question mark in this field. We know she has the speed and has been minding her manners as of late. She was real tardy at the start her last race which made the rest of her trip tough. Keep a close eye on her.

Value Play Checkers Pride

Longshot Play Heatherspet

Race 6 5-2-4

Along For The Ride First and second every one of her last five starts and will be hard to deny.

Majian Salsa Made a break due to broken equipment her last start so we'll give that a pass. She has been good before that so we like her.

Oceanview Cicero Will no doubt be a main player again.

Race 7 1-2-7

Starshipzodiac Has the rail and loves the front. He will be send forward at the word 'go' and look to put away all challengers on his way to the O'Brien winner's circle.

Woodmere Gaelic Racing well for Arsenault and should get a nice ride from post 2.

Silver Spirit He will have lots of road work to do so we'll place third in spite of his morning line favourite status.

Race 8 3-5-1

Up Helly AA Only tasted defeat three times from 18 lifetime starts. From post 3 we see the winning continuing.

Cadillac Has been a constant bridesmaid in his career but has bested our top pick before.

Headline Howie Is one of the top colts in the division but has dodged the divisional titan most weeks. He finally gets a crack at him and draws inside so we'll see how he fares out. Should be interesting.

Race 9 1-2-3

Therealprincess Next.

Orrsterror Post position is critical at the sophomore filly level this season and with her sure to get away second we'll call her to hang on to that spot.

Tobins Diva Likes to leave and can also close well. She will be part of it.

Race 10 2-4-5

JJ Xavier – Finally gets a good draw for Barrieau and picks a great day to find a lefthand spot on the gate. He is called 'The Maritime Magic Man' for a reason and we're betting he may show us exactly why in here.

Stash It Away – Will likely be the favourite in this one and with good reason. We played a hunch on the top spot and if he can't get there we think Stash It Away gets it all.

Elm Grove Qwiggly – The little colt from Cape Breton has never done anything except put an honest foot forward every step of every mile. He is back in with the big dogs today but we have faith Doucet will map out a top notch trip.

Race 11 3-2-4

Dreamfair Zenfire 'The King' of Island racing will be towed behind 'The Queen' of pacing mares in here and with post 3 she should be a very hard gal to knock off.

Share The Moment When she is on her game she is one of the top mares around and could give our top choice a scare late in the mile.

Acefortyfourdome Has been very good since coming East. Don't count her out.
