(12:30 PM POST TIME)

Race 1 4-3-1

Run For The Money Getting better all the time and we think she has a big time change to get it all. Especially with Doucet picking up the catch drive.

Royoz Allie Races consistently and is a top play today.

Rockin Hussy Has shown some talent in the past and with rail control we play her up high on the ticket.

Race 2 4-1-2

Starship Glyde Draws away from the divisional heavyweight and gets a short field. The price will be short but he deserves it in here.

Baconabiscuit The short field will see not much action for the first three-quarters of a mile so if he gets off on the right foot and gets away on top or behind our top choice we see him securing the silver.

Meraki The battle will be on for third and we give this guy the edge with the inside draw.

Race 3 7-4-8

Rollwithhottytoddy He has been on fire and post 7 or not he belongs on top.

Mr Rielly Shows lots of zip at the end of the mile so we see him closing late.

Big Bad Bruiser Is having a top notch four-year-old season and the partnership with Spence has been paying off.

Race 4 2-4-1

Fishermans Son The rivalry resumes with Malignity but this guy has the post edge so we see the win streak continuing.

Malignity What a colt Malignity has proven to be with six wins from eight starts in his rookie campaign. We place him second but he will take a run at getting it all.

Howmac Charmer Should get a nice trip to hit the triactor.

Race 5 3-4-8

Speakingofshadow Looked even stronger after removing the hobbles and with a favourable draw today we can't put her anywhere but in the win column.

Marina Del Rey Was a bang-up second in track record fashion her last start and should be a top play again.

Our Girl Annie She has never been worse than third in her whole life and with the rallying trip she showed her last start we see the trend continuing.

Race 6 5-4-3

Proudfyatoday There is no clear cut favourite in this field but with this colt showing some step we think he can get the job done.

Tobins Party Is the only winner in the class and should be a top play again.

Elm Grove Restwind Anything can happen in here and if Dowling can get the ball rolling early he may just say goodnight to this field.

Value Play Woodmere Xspeedia

Race 7 5-2-8

IC True Grit Not often you see this veteran pacer down this low and when he is you have to play him to win.

Jeb The draw is in his favour for a tidy trip.

Spack Jarrow If he drew better we may just place him on top.

Race 8 1-2-3

Redland Sampson If Murphy puts the pedal down we see him turning and burning all the way to the winner's circle.

JJ Landon Has been racing so well for Barrieau you have to think he is sitting on a win. Maybe today?

Sue Warrior Shows some good trips lately in Cape Breton and we see him acquitting himself well on the road today.

Race 9 2-1-3

Brumby Sticks with the top colts on the Eastern Seaboard every start and it is incredible he only has four wins. We see the win column ticking up to five today with a front-end steer.

Poplar Artie If someone is going to upset our top choice we're looking his way.

Windsong Quincy The inside will be leaving and if he can hold his position he will get a solid tow.

Race 10 1-3-4

Emperor He is sitting on a big, big trip and we see MacPherson supplying it today with rail control.

Justcallmedoc Down in class and we like his chances.

West Coast Kid If he minds his manners he can grab a big slice of this one.

Race 11 3-1-4

Soul Assassin Rides a two-race win streak into today and should extend it.

Ashes To Ashes Rail control with Barrieau, don't leave him out.

Sam McKee Hanover Drops in class and retains MacPherson. We see him as a top player.

Longshot Play Fern Hill Dynamic

Race 12 1-2-6

Scarlet Summer Is undefeated with Barrieau in the seat so add that information to the rail position and place her on top of your tickets.

Saulsbrook Wonder Was solid her last start for Dowling so we expect a similar result.

Next In Line Gets better every week so we see her being heard from today.

Race 13 5-1-2

Fern Hill Gusto Another top three-year-old colt that steps away from stakes action and should be getting his picture taken.

Sports Royalty Last time he had the rail he got it all so you have to like him especially staying at the same class level.

Blue Monk Has been used to facing some of the bearcats and should be a top choice today.

Race 14 3-2-6

Redlandbethanyjean Was the fastest two-year-old filly in the history of Atlantic Canadian harness racing in her latest outing and with her drawing inside we have to use her to win.

Singing Ramona Has been exceptional every step of her season and we expect another good showing today.

Itsuptoyou The MacLean stable always comes to play so don't leave her out.

Race 15 2-1-3

Time To Dance When he draws inside he doesn't miss too many winner's circle pictures. The rail horse will be very tough but Time To Dance will be on top of his game especially as he paces in honour of his former biggest fan.

Twin B Tuffenuff Has draws the rail but has self destructed from there before so we know Barrieau is going to be cautious at the start. He is top play but we will place second.

Batterup Hanover The trip is going to work out for him and has all kinds of talent to capitalize on it.

Race 16 4-5-1

Mc Pat Has never looked out of place at the preferred level but only has one win to his credit this season. We don't see that statistic lasting another week. Top call.

Boys Turn Dowling gets the best out of him. He will need a trip to land here but with such a wide open field we see him working it out.

Spicy P Has acclimatized to East Coast racing and was rewarded with a win last week. Gets the rail in a field full of question marks so we like his chances as good as anyone.
