

Race 1 2-1-5

I Can Do It She raced well last week braving it first up and hanging on for the silver. Remains at the same level and Barrieau gets the call so this could be the day she finds the win column.

Saulsbrook Velveta She hasn't had much luck of late but was racing at higher levels. Lands on the cones and Heffernan will have her in play early so they'll be right there when it's all said and done.

Outrageous Spirit The line two back hops off the page where she was a going away winner. She's back in the same spot today and the Blue Knight returns so they just might win again.

Race 2 5-3-4

Doc Darryl He was put on the engine three back and led for a long way just getting collared at the end. While you're at it have a look at those closing quarters and that's why he's on top of the ticket.

Shifting Views Second and third in his last two appearances and just missed by a length on Sunday. Gets another great post to work from and congrats to Corey for winning the driving championship so expect more of the same today.

Whims Drop Off He raced well last week sneaking down the passing lane to nab the deuce. Moves to the middle and should be well spotted so he's a solid choice to complete the triactor.

Race 3 4-3-5

Noble Ed He looked to be winner last out but was just nipped at the wire. Slides out to post four and Barrieau will have him up handy the action so he could go one better this time.

Woodmere Dealer He was able to track along last week and rewarded with the runner up spot. Lines up in a similar post and we like playing trends so it makes sense to put him here.

Saulsbrook Ripper He's not the safest play on the page but looks to have the step to go with these. He also gets a new pilot and if Heffernan can keep his mind on business, they could hit the top three.

Race 4 1-2-4

Diamond Call He came off the bench last week and faced a good group finishing on the fringes. Now he gets the pole position and with Dowling on board it could be a gate to wire score.

Pacific Delight She's been up and down in 2022 but does have a couple of wins on her card. It looks like she may be able to draft from here and if that's how it plays out, we say first or second.

Luigi Bizacko We liked the way he raced three down closing in 29.3 and landing on the podium. Draws post four and the price will be friendly so if you're searching for value this could be the play.

Most Probable Diamond Call

Race 5 1-7-2

Miss Sangria Take a peek at the line three back where she slipped down the passing lane to get the gold. She's back in the same spot and knows how to win so be prepared for a good performance.

Traces Of Purple She had to race first over last week and settled for a fifth place finish. Now she's on the outside looking in but we're confident Barrieau maps out a trip onto the ticket.

Evening Maelstrom Have a look at the line two down where she drafted all the way for the deuce. She gets the same track, same post, same class, same driver and possibly the same result today.

Race 6 3-2-4

Elm Grove Mistress She's put together an awesome year and has nine wins on her papers. It will be all systems go from here and if Dowling does set up shop on the lead, she'll be tough to reel in.

Woodmere Rollily She took advantage of a perfect pocket ride reaching up in the final strides to win. It looks like a similar journey may be in the cards so don't be shocked if she goes back-to-back.

Ubettimagoodone She's missed the ticket in three straight but was up against the best mares in the region. Takes a dip and with Arsenault at the controls it could be win, place, or show.

Race 7 2-1-4

La Vie En Rose Zipped off the wings two back and bossed it all the way just getting edged out in a blanket finish. We're betting Barrieau will have her on the front foot and land on the line first.

You Aint Dolly She was able to follow along last week and finished a bang up second. Drops a notch and is going to get a sweet trip from the cones so with that in mind we need to include.

Tell Me Why She seems to be getting better with every start and rallied in for the bronze. Moves to the mid pack and MacPherson knows her very well so we're putting them in the triactors.

Race 8 5-4-3

Dealin Magic He's a newcomer to PEI and does have five wins in 2022. He also has the fastest win time on the page and with Dowling above the wheels they could be smiling for the camera.

Summit City Nate Check out the chart line five back where he controlled it the entire way and was just nipped late. He's back in the same post and Corey hops up for a spin so they're our value play of the day.

Along For The Ride She was flying on the end of it last week and just missed by the slimmest of margins. Moves into post two and Ambyr is on a big time roll so expect them to be a factor at the finish.

Value Play Summit City Nate

Race 9 5-4-6

Ms Moyses When you look at the numbers she's had a nice season and was a winner last out. Bumps up the class ladder but she's been here before, so we won't be surprised if it's two in a row.

Maggiesdelight Fired to the front six down and never looked back going coast to coast and scoring in 1:56.4. We're thinking the tactics could be the same today so this could be a savvy choice.

Ill Tell Me Ma She's been living on the edges in her last two but up against some nice company. Takes a drop and moves closer to the fence but she could come calling late and get a minor share.

Race 10 5-2-1

Jessiejesorjessica To say she's sharp may be an understatement and if you need more proof take a look at the lines. Draws the same post and can really fly home so she's back in the top spot.

Hallofaride We went with him last week and he raced great finishing second from post seven. Much better starting point and Murphy will have him up close so expect them to have a say in the outcome.

Windmeredontuworry He got a dreamy two hole ride last week reaching up late to grab the glory. Now he gets the rail and will be tucked in so keep that in mind when you're heading to the windows.

Long Shot Play Incredible Two

Race 11 4-5-3

Acefortyfour Dome She's been razor sharp for the past three weeks and has a couple of wins to show for it. We're thinking the Blue Knight will want to boss it from the get-go so she could go right down the highway.

Tobins Brownie She's been excellent for the past three weeks but can't quite find the winner's circle. Moves out to post five but can really storm home so she could land on the scene late and get all the marbles.

Ladylike She made an early break in Truro and finished at the back. Makes the return trip to PEI and Murphy is listed to drive so if you don't want to play the chalk this could be a smart selection.

Race 12 6-2-1

Topville Angelina Silver and bronze in her last two attempts and closed in a snappy 28.2. Moves out to post six and Barrieau gets along well with her so they could wrap up the day with a win.

Steelmeatresure We loved the way she raced two down fronting it all the way and nabbing the deuce. There's little doubt she'll be up near the pace so we're putting her in the Super Hi 5.

Howmac Blaze She seems to be turning her season around and has hit the board in two straight. She's also going to get a ground saving trip from the rail, so we'll call for the show prize.
