

Race 1 1-6-4

The Big Chase He was issued a parking ticket last time out and paid the price finishing at the back. Now he gets the rail and MacPherson will be gunning early so they could start the day with a win.

I C True Grit He's been living on the edges in his past few but was racing up the class ladder. Takes a dip and moves to post six but he could come calling late and make some noise.

Georges Credit Another one that's been on the edges but battling outside draws. Moves to the middle and the stats indicate he likes to finish third so that's where we'll put him today.

Race 2 1-2-3

Blakesagent He led every step of it last week cruising to victory in his first for a purse. Lands on the cones and we're betting Barrieau will want to call the shots all the way to the winner's circle.

Ms Chantalmachabay She crossed the line first last Saturday but was placed sixth when the results went official. The good news is she draws post two and will get a tidy trip, so we'll call for the deuce.

Bet The Deck She's off to a good start in her career and has hit the board in three straight. Moves off the rail but should get a nice trip so she's a good option to round out the tri.

Most Probable Blakesagent

Race 3 1-3-6

Hippy John He's been battling outside posts but was a winner two back on his card. Lands on the rail and Arsenault will be guarding the cones so he could return to his winning ways.

J K Express That was some effort from post eight storming out of the clouds to nab the gold. Bumps up the class ladder but coming off that performance we aren't about to leave him out.

Brookdale Jim He's been right there in every start and knocking on the door for a win. He's also back outside and Hughes hops up so mark them down as our Red Shores value play of the day.

Value Play Brookdale Jim

Race 4 5-3-2

JK Last Chance He was put on the engine last week and never looked back pacing off the screen to victory. Slides out to post five but if he closes in 28 and change get ready for two in a row.

Good Eye Hawkeye The line five back jumps off the page where he fronted it all the way and scored in 1:56.2. We're wagering the Blue Knight will be aggressive off the wings and be a factor at the finish.

Better Than Cash We loved the way he raced last out tracking all the way for the silver. Gets another great post to work from and Ambyr is rolling so we're putting them in our tickets.

Race 5 7-6-3

Mick Dundee He hasn't been able to find his game of late but was racing at higher levels. Drops another notch and MacNeill knows him very well so this could be the day he turns it around.

Elm Grove Quest When you look at the summary she's had a nice year and does have three wins to her name. Lines up in the same post and Barrieau returns so they could bounce back into the top three.

Slate N He's missed the board in his last two attempts but was racing up the ladder. Gets some class relief and the price will be friendly, so we'll take a shot and call for the show spot.

Long Shot Play Slate N

Race 6 5-6-4

Midnight Macneill Fired to the front four down and was an impressive gate to wire winner. We're thinking the game plan may be the same today so keep that in mind when placing your wagers.

Shakemeup Hanover He's put together a solid campaign and hit the ticket in 12 of 16 starts. He's on the outside looking in again but can really fly home so we're putting him in the exactors.

Azure Beach He looked sharp in the qualifier going right down the road and closing in 29.2. He also lines up in the same spot and retains MacPherson so they could land on the podium in here.

Race 7 1-2-3

Bugger Max He's been racing from the grandstand side in his last two and missed the board both times. Now he gets the pole position and Dowling will have him in the mix so this could be a savvy choice.

Brookdale Ollie We had him as a value play last week and he raced well hanging on for the show dough. He gets a better spot on the wings and Kenny will have him well placed so we're expecting a good result.

Dividend Day He had to race first over last week and finished on the fringes. He's also back in the same spot and the price will be right so if you're searching for value this could be the one.

Race 8 3-2-1

Winter Blast The race looks to be wide open but this guy wired them three down in 1:56.3. We're betting Dowling will be pressing the pace and if he does boss it from the word go it just might seal the deal.

Phil Dorleans He's been excellent for the past month and rallied late to grab the gold last Saturday. Gets a prime-time spot to race from and this is a good partnership so we're banking on another top three.

Melanies Magic He's hit the board in two of his last three and was a winner last out. There's no doubt he's going to get a handy trip and with Gilles in the bike they could sneak onto the ticket.

Race 9 2-1-6

Whatawaytogo He was stung early last week and settled for a fourth-place finish. Much better starting point and we're wagering Dowling will have him on or near the lead at the start and finish.

Sam Mckee Hanover He was put on the point and led for a long way before fading to a fourth place finish. Drops another notch and will be tucked in so we're betting on a better result today.

Brookdale Maggie Second and third in her last two and closed out in 30 and change both times. She's also back outside and all those third-place finishes really stand out so we'll call for another one today.

Race 10 6-4-2

St Lads Skip He's on a big time roll right now and dug in late to win again last week. Slides out to post six and Dowling is listed to drive so we're calling for a Red Shores grand slam.

Catchme If Lou Can We were impressed with that effort last week braving it first up and just getting nipped at the wire. He gets the same class, same post, same driver and the same result this week.

Best To Hurst We liked him for part of it last week and he delivered just missing by the slimmest of margins. Takes a slight hike and gets a new pilot so we're going to include.

Race 11 4-1-3

Premier Joy A Blasted off the gate three down and went coast to coast scoring in 1:56.4. We're thinking the strategy may be same today so if he does get to the front, it could be lights out.

Dylan Sam When you look at the lines he's always in the mix week in and week out. He's also going to get a ground saving journey from here and Murphy knows him best so put them in your tickets.

Three Trick Gainer He was in against some tough customers last week and finished on the edges. Slides down the class ladder and will be well spotted so we'll call for the bronze this time.

Race 12 3-5-1

Mantario He may be the sharpest horse on PEI and if you need more proof have a look at those snappy closing panels. He also gets a better spot to work from and this is a good combination so it could be picture time.

Stash It Away We went with him last week and he raced terrific just getting collared at the very end. Moves out a spot on the gate and Barrieau jumps up so they could get it all this week.

Mr Rielly He won for fun last week popping out of the three hole and winning by over four lengths in 1:55.1. Now he faces the big dogs but his form is excellent so he's back on the ticket.

Race 13 6-4-7

Moonwriter We had him on top of the ticket last week and he was a convincing winner in 1:55.4. He remains at the same level and Murphy gets along well with him so they could close the card with a win.

Screen Test He's put together a rock solid season and does have four wins on his papers. We're thinking Corey will have him on the front foot and be up handy the pace so we say first or second.

Boys Turn He's been right there for the past six weeks and was a winner three down. It won't be easy from out here but with Dowling at the wheel they'll have a say before it's all said and done.
