

Race 1 6-7-5

Winrllosedrnkdaboze She's missed the ticket in two straight appearances but was racing at higher levels. Takes a dip and Dowling hops up for a spin so they could open the card with a win.

Psili Ammos She looked to be in a good spot last week but faded to a fifth place finish. Drops a notch and moves closer to the fence but we're betting on a bounce back performance today.

Heatherspet She was able to track along last week and picked up the show prize. We're wagering Barrieau will have her in play early and if that's the case they could have a say before it's over.

Race 2 2-3-5

Dusty Lane Zendaya She was in against a good group last week and not that far away at the finish. Remains at the same level and MacPherson knows her best so we're putting them on top of the ticket.

Ubettimagoodone First, second, and third in her last three starts and only a length back on Saturday. We're thinking Spence will be pressing the pace and have her on or near the lead at the start and finish.

Countercurrency We loved the way she raced last week braving it first up and just missing at the end. She's back in the same spot and Hughes returns so they look to be contenders again.

Race 3 5-6-4

Power Of Four Powered to the front last week and led for a long way only to be tracked down in the stretch. Draws the same post and the tactics could be the same only this time he goes all the way.

Truckem The move to PEI has worked out well and he scored a natural hat trick last Saturday. He's also on the outside looking in again but with Campbell at the controls it could be grand slam time.

Slate N When you look at the lines he's been right there and just missed by a whisker two down. Moves to the mid pack and looks to have the step to go with these so he's a solid option to complete the tri.

Race 4 1-2-3

Hippy John He was able to pocket ride last week and finished second to a runaway winner. The good news is he's back on the cones and is going to get a sweet journey, so we'll call for the top spot.

Selkirk Echo He's been living on the edges for over a month but up against some tough customers. Slides into post two and those closing panels say a lot so we're putting him in the exactors.

Jetster We liked the way he performed two back drafting all the way and reaching up late to nab the gold. Moving on up the class ladder and Campbell has had success with him in the past so we need to include.

Race 5 2-1-5

Winter Blast He was on the move first over last week and settled for the show spot. It looks like he's going to get a favourable trip from here and if that's how it plays out it could be picture time.

Brookdale Jim We liked him for part of it last week and he raced great rallying late to get the deuce. Much better starting point and MacPherson will have him well spotted, so we say first or second in here.

Justcallmedoc It just wasn't his day last week but finished second and third prior to that start. Just a friendly reminder he did have the most wins on the page last year so keep that in mind when placing your wagers.

Race 6 5-2-3

Ill Tell Me Ma She didn't sit long last week circling up to the lead and scoring in 2:00.2. She gets the same spot to race from this week and Campbell is listed to drive so it could be two in a row.

Rock The Baby Zipped off the wings last week and cut it all out only to be collared in deep stretch. Takes a minor dip and Dowling will have her on the front foot so you may want to put them in the on-track pick 5.

The Time To Win Take a closer peek at the chart line from last week and you'll see she was closing in late. Moves out a spot on the wings and the price will be friendly so this could be a smart selection.

Race 7 1-5-2

Woodmere Rollily That start two back hops off the page where she tracked all the way and just missed in a blanket finish. Lands on the pylons and a similar trip could be in the works so we'll put her in the win column.

Plain Jane We picked her to win last week and she delivered making it two straight at Red Shores. Lines up in the same post and Dowling is above the wheels so it could be a threepart.

Elm Grove Mistress Hughes put her in a good spot last week tracking all the way to secure the silver. She's back inside and the Blue Knight will have her up handy the action so be ready for more of the same today.

Race 8 5-7-6

Checkers Pride She was storming on the end of it last week skimming the cones and just missing at long odds. Much better draw and Merner knows her well so they could cross the line first.

Dollys Sky She had the lead late last week and still hung on for the show dough. She also must race from the grandstand side but we're confident Heffernan works out a trip into the top three.

Miss Sangria Gold, silver and bronze in her last three starts and gave the punters a nice pay day last week. It won't be easy from out here but with MacPherson at the wheel we aren't about to leave them out.

Value Play Steelmeatresure

Race 9 5-4-3

Stash It Away He made a big move from the back last week and looked to be a winner only to be nipped at the finish. It was still a great effort and if he does that again could find the wire first this week.

Middleton Terror Congrats to our guest handicapper Kent Oakes for having him on top of the ticket last week. Now he gets post four and with Dowling on board there's a strong chance they double up.

Blood Money He was fronting it for a long way last week and settled for a fifth-place finish. We're predicting he'll be up near the pace again and may be sent off at a nice price so be prepared for a bounce back effort.

Race 10 3-1-6

Premier Joy A He's been lighting it up at Red Shores and has reeled off six wins in a row. There's little doubt Campbell will be gunning early and if he does set up shop on the point it could be another wire-to-wire score.

Poplar Artie He was on the fringes last week but up against some stiff competition. Gets the pole position and will be tucked in for most it so he could close the winter meet with a win.

Sports Royalty He's been excellent for over a month and if you need more proof take a look at the lines. Slides out to post six and can really fly home so we're putting him in the Red Shores Super Hi 5.
