9. Results will be calculated the following day based on how their selection finished in the official Race Results & Prices.
10. Entrants must "survive" by finishing in-the-money (i.e. one "win, place, or show wager must be a winning wager) with at least one of their selections each day. Failing to do so, or not making any selections for a contest day will prevent the player from advancing in the game. To aid in the player's survival, one "horseshoe" is provided. The horseshoe is a onetime "free pass" that is provided to all challenge participants that allows the player to "survive" if they do not make selections for a race card or all three of their selections fail to hit the board.
 - 10.1 If the contestant has used their "horseshoe" and the challenge has not finished, their total winnings results will plateau, and they will no longer be able to play for the remainder of the challenge. Their winnings results will remain on the scoreboard and if the challenge ends with them in the top three, they will win the assigned prize.
 - 10.2 If the player completes the Winter Survivor Challenge without redeeming their "horseshoe," they will be awarded a $10 wagering coupon.

10.3 If the first-place winner of the Winter Survivor Challenge didn't use their "horseshoe" they will be awarded a $50 wagering coupon or a $50 deposit onto their Fastbet account in addition to the 1st place prize.

11. Maximum one entry per contestant, per event date, at either Red Shores location. (i.e. you can only play at one (1) Red Shores location on any given day during the contest period)
12. In the event of a late scratch (horse is removed from race prior to race start), the contestant will be awarded the post time favorite (the horse considered most likely to win based on the odds at post time).
13. In the event of a track cancellation, it will be announced by a Red Shores Racing Official, what, if any, new track will be selected.
