

2024 Gold Cup Ambassadors

Jamie Ward

Jamie is the daughter of Tim and Dawn Ward of Stratford. She is currently going into her second year of the Environmental Applied Science and Technology program at Holland College and plans to work for the department of agriculture when she graduates. She will be representing the New Start Standardbreds foundation as her charity. Jamie is proud to be carrying on the family tradition as a 2024 Gold Cup and Saucer Ambassador.

Delaney Dunn

Delaney is the daughter of Amanda Hughes-Dunn of Sherwood and Dennis Dunn of Summerside. She is currently entering her third year at University of Prince Edward Island and is studying Psychology with plans to pursue a career in Education as a school psychologist. Delaney will be representing LifeHouse Summerside as her charity. Delaney is honored and excited to be representing harness racing as a 2024 Gold Cup and Saucer Ambassador.

Audrey MacPhee

Audrey is the daughter of Peter and Valerie MacPhee of Cornwall. She is currently attending UPEI in the Business Administration program and will be entering her third year in the fall. Audrey will be representing Santa's Angels as her charity and is very honored and excited to be an ambassador for the 65th edition of the Gold Cup and Saucer.

Laurel Drake

Laurel is the daughter of Lee Drake and Jennifer Evans of Charlottetown. Laurel is entering her 3rd year at St. FX University in the Bachelor of Arts and Science in Health and is hoping to pursue her master's in social work. Laurel will be representing Hospice PEI as her charity. Laurel is proud to continue the Drake family passion and involvement in Harness Racing as a 2024 Gold Cup and Saucer Ambassador.

Tate MacDonald

Tate is the daughter of Kent & Bonnie MacDonald and raised in Stratford. This Fall, Tate is entering her third year of study towards her Bachelor of Business Administration degree at the University of Prince Edward Island. Tate will be representing Muscular Dystrophy Canada as her charity. Growing up in a harness racing family, Tate couldn't be more thrilled and honored to be a 2024 Gold Cup and Saucer Ambassador.

Sam MacLeod

Sam is the daughter of Kenneth MacLeod and Debbie Willis of Springton. She has just recently graduated the Accounting Technology program at Holland College and is currently working at The Mill in New Glasgow. Sam is representing Blooming House of PEI as her charity this year. Sam is honored to be able to keep harness racing in her family by representing harness racing as a 2024 Gold Cup and Saucer Ambassador.

Ella Hennessey

Ella is the daughter of Ronnie and Anne Marie Hennessey of Charlottetown. She is currently studying Psychology at the University of Prince Edward Island and plans on furthering her education in the Bachelor of Education program at UPEI. Ella will be representing Special Olympics PEI as her charity. Ella is extremely excited and honored to be representing harness racing as a 2024 Gold Cup and Saucer Ambassador.

Chelsey Affleck

Chelsey is the daughter of Tricia MacGregor and Trevor Affleck and lives in West Royalty. She is currently going into her third year at UPEI taking her Bachelor of Psychology and she spends her summers working at Chez Yvonne's in Cavendish. Chelsey will be representing the PEI Cerebral Palsy Association. She is very honoured to have been selected this year and carry on the tradition her family has played in harness racing now for several decades.

Miranda Lidstone

Miranda is the daughter of Doug and the late Jennifer Lidstone of North Rustico. She is currently working at Clinton View Lodge. Miranda will be representing the PEI Cancer Treatment Center as her charity. Miranda is both thrilled and honored to be representing harness racing as an ambassador of the 65th running of the Gold Cup and Saucer.

