Race 1 6-5-9

Howmac Powerball If this guy makes front it is all over. We say he does and heads right to the winner's circle in open-length fashion.

Jetster He's always lurking at this level and often ends up on the ticket. Favourable draw and reuniting with Campbell adds to his appeal.

Wild River Coyotee Making his second start off the bench and gets a better spot to work from for this one. Qualified well then got shuffled out of it from post 8 last time. We see some upside.

Most Probable Howmac Powerball

Race 2 4-3-5

Saulsbrook Bolt The inside draw tonight gives Dowling the option to protect early position and maybe even trip out behind live cover. He's capable of fronting the field or powering up in deep stretch.

Woodmere Sinatra The barn change to Chris Davies is worth noting, with the Saint John native having a strong start to the meet. With a better post and an aggressive steer from Campbell, this gelding could be dangerous in the late stages.

Wizard He'll be a major player again if the early pace is lively. His finishes speak to his consistency, and if the top pair falter, he could absolutely pounce.

Race 3 5-7-2

Harlequin Romance Has been strong since joining Team Barlow with a pair of wins lately and some fire at the end of the mile. Faces similar today so we'll go her way again.

Canvas Of Stars There's not a ton of flash in her lines, but there's consistency and in a race where many lack recent wins, that's worth something. Dowling will likely have her aimed for a live cover trip and could have her wound up to fire through the lane. She's not one you want to leave off the ticket, and if the pace gets hot, she might be the one making the last move.

Princess Halo She's been very good this season and seems to be doing her best work when positioned close to the front. From post 2 Sweet has plenty of options, and if she slides into a cozy pocket she'll be one of the main threats turning for home.

Race 4 6-2-4

Fout Comes back to P.E.I., and rejoins the Noye stable after pacing in 1:53 and change at Georgian Downs recently. Looks to be the best in here as this gelding may finally break through for his first win of the season.

J J Patrick A versatile sort who has quietly been in the hunt most weeks. The move to post 2 makes him more dangerous, especially if Sweet decides to roll him to the top and take control or sit handy the favourite.

Joe C One Fiveoh Has shown some step in the past and if things line up just right, he's capable of mowing them down.

Longshot Play Joe C One Fiveoh

Race 5 5-2-3

Molly Malone A solid second in her latest and hits a vulnerable bunch where anything could happen. We say she gets it all.

Lyons Beach Babe She's done little wrong in her two Summerside efforts. Look for another top-three finish and a chance to win if things set up her way.

Mikita Post 3 gives him plenty of options, and MacPherson might try to keep him closer to the speed this time. If he gets a clean journey, he's a play to jump up and land on the ticket or even upset.

Race 6 6-5-4

Sugar Bowl - She might be facing the mare that beat her last time but don't overlook her ability to rise to the moment. If she's within striking range at the head of the lane, expect her to be breathing fire late.

Freaky Fanny - Has had strong recent showings against some of the very best local mares. That June 27 line also shows her beating some top level horses. If Sugar Bowl is getting beat, it will be her doing the winning.

Acefortyfour Dome -If Hughes gets aggressive, she may be able to dictate terms, and at her best, she can fend off a hard-charging group. We like her for a piece of it.

Race 7 5-2-6

Rock N Roll Cays She's been knocking on the door for weeks and appears ready to punch it down to day. With a live trip or early positioning, this mare could finally deliver that elusive win.

Starshipsalicia Has shown she can handle herself at this level. If Langille has her racing on the right foot she can leave enough to not put herself in a bad spot at the start and maybe upset the apple cart.

Saulsbrook Pika Probably the best in here on paper but the outside draw could be an issue. If MacPhee works out a trip she belongs higher than this.

Race 8 3-5-1

Twin B Tuffenuff The former Gold Cup and Saucer finalist primed for today's task. Post 3 is ideal for a tactical brush-and-crush type trip and we know his versatility is a major weapon. We say he is about to punch his ticket to next week's final and defend his title.

Bee Two Bee Not to be ignored in here, this eight-time winner in 2024 is co-holder of the CDP track record for a reason. We see him as a major factor.

Island Beach Boy Expect Merner to be aggressive off the wings again, and he is no slouch so don't count him out to be hanging around late. As for winning it all? It could happen.

Value Play Island Beach Boy

Race 9 4-2-3

Sharky This gelding has found his stride in recent weeks and appears to be sitting on a win. He is pacing consistent miles and hitting the board with sharp final quarters. Drawing Post 4 here gives Campbell options and we see them breaking through.

Howmac Exclusive Last week he was a little too far out of it early, but when he kicked into gear, he was moving fast and pacing home in 28.4. He's now back with Corey MacPherson in the bike, who's had success with him in the past. He'll be right in the thick of it down the lane.

Braxtons Boy He's durable and fits this group well. Don't count him out.

Race 10 1-2-3

Rosetown Mary She's had an unbelievable season so far and has never looked better than she does right now. Coming into this race riding a two-race win streak, MacPherson will be sending early and daring anyone to come take it from her. She's the mare to beat in this elimination and possibly the mare to beat in the entire Series.

Plain Jane Joins the MacKay barn and draws better today. If Rosetown Mary gets softened up, this classy mare may be the one to pick up the pieces.

Elm Grove Mistress One of the most consistent mares on the Island as she's held her own with strong closing efforts and sub-29 final quarters. She is a good play for exotics.

Race 11 3-7-4

Spectrum Seelster Drops in class and draws post 3. We expect him to be sent forward at the start and be hard to defeat for the combination of Hughes and Doyle.

Melody Maker This horse's form is sharp but he gets a tough draw today as he looks to deliver on his morning line promise. If he catches a helmet and fires off cover, look out.

Starshipzodiac Racing well every week and drops in class today. This field doesn't have a ton of gate speed so he may end up closer than usual at the start and be positioned to pounce.

Race 12 2-7-8

Save America The road to the final goes through this superstar. He's been nothing short of dominant in his three local starts while making it look easy. Post 2 is perfect as he looks to head to the $50,000 as the probable favourite for Saturday night. His high speed makes him lethal from any position, but when he gets to dictate terms, it's almost unfair. The top dog until proven otherwise.

Miki Shan N The Aussie invader continues to race tough each week and just keeps finding the ticket. He has yet to face Save America but we think he can go with him. An argument can be made that he is second-best on paper after racing the upper levels at Yonkers Raceway this Winter and should make the final if he gets a decent trip.

High Voltage Deo Has been in the conversation for best horse in Atlantic Canada in recent weeks but never seems to draw well in the big dances. He needs to make the final today, which we say he will, and be a major contender for the win on Saturday.
