SATURDAY, JULY 19, 2025

POST TIME 4:00 PM
OFFICIAL PROGRAM NO. 14

$3.00 - ON TRACK $3.50 - OFF TRACK

Race 1 7-2-4

Miramichi Charlie Gets Campbell and if he blasts off the wings like he did at Truro, there's no reason he can't put himself in play early and trip out for all the marbles. He'll be one of the favourites and for good reason. Top call.

Flamin' Freddy This guy seems to get better every week. We like the improvement from start to start, and with a cozy draw he's a must-use.

Sergeant Crowley Barrieau jumps on for the first time this season and if he lands cover and pounces off a good helmet, he's right in the mix for a top-three spot and could even get it all if the trip works.

Value Play Sergeant Crowley

Race 2 4-6-5

Rollwithhottytoddy He's got the inside edge on his key rivals and Heffernan gets along best with him. It was a year ago today that he went one of the biggest trips of his life finishing second in the Governor's Plate final. We'll say lightning strikes twice and call him the one to beat.

Sharky Has been part of a splendid week for a red hot Marc Campbell as he won in 1:54.4 on July 13. His recent form is excellent, and while he may not offer big odds, he is a threat for the win.

Navalny He can close but can also be part of the early action if asked. Brady Sweet gets back in the bike and they haven't been worse than third this season. If the trip works out and he gets any kind of live cover, he's one of the ones who can pick them off late.

Race 3 5-4-1

Bettim Alive Has been on fire lately and adds Barrieau to make him undoubtedly the one to knock off.

Evil Lou Shows up to play and we like his odds to finish here or higher.

Wizard You can never count him out and drawing post 1 makes him a major player in this dash.

Race 4 2-6-4

Don't Come Lookin' He's quietly putting together a very solid season with three wins from six starts. Last time he faced B-Company he was a winner in 1:58.2 and retains Dowling in the seat. Dowling should have him forwardly placed early and if they pace even fractions, he could blow this one wide open off the final turn.

Chromed Up MacPherson gets the call here, and if he can drop into a mid-pack seat early or find cover, he'll be charging home hard. He's already paced sub-1:58 mile this season, and if the top one falters Chromed Up can pick up the pieces.

Mikita This colt is rounding into form at the right time, and he's been right there against similar in his last few. If he lands a stalking trip from mid-pack, he's in with a shot to hit the ticket or better.

Race 5 1-3-5

Rock N Roll Cays This mare might not have been on many radars earlier this season, but her last mile have forced bettors to take notice. She absolutely crushed on July 13, converting a front-end steer by Dowling into a 1:53.4 win where she widened through the lane under minimal urging. The draw puts her exactly where she wants to be – back On the lead – and with her current form cycle peaking, there's no reason to jump off the bandwagon now. Big class difference tonight but she's fast and razor sharp.

Shadows Terror Rounding back into his best form after some tough trips earlier in the meet. He gets Merner back tonight and with the right helmet to follow he can fire home with authority. A big ticket threat with the right trip.

Spectrum Seelster A winner in his latest and don't ignore that June 28 effort at this level pacing in 1:55 flat. He is absolutely a contender to spring a mild upset.

Race 6 5-6-3

Almanac Has hit a rough patch lately but he has been facing stronger and handling himself well. Drawing mid-pack tonight gives Dowling options, and with this gelding's sharp final quarters, don't be surprised if he powers past them late.

Nova Scotia Strong This gelding has shown some serious pace when things go his way. The outside draw isn't ideal, but if McGuigan can slide him into contention without using too much gas early, he could slingshot off cover and take this wide-open affair.

Rymar Jimbo A bit of a dark horse, but can come to play. He's not the type to wire them, but if he can land a helmet tonight, he might be able to sneak up the cones late and spice up the exotics. Four-time winner this season so he demands respect.

Race 7 2-6-1

Big Pond Cash This gelding has been nothing short of rock solid in recent weeks, winning his latest in 1:55. Campbell will likely be looking to put him on the point again and he will be the one to knock off.

Jackie Pang He's been getting better every start this year. Post six could be tricky, but MacPherson will likely send him forward early, and if he lands close and gets a helmet, he could make a serious move turning for home. He's peaking at the right time and worth a long look on the upswing.

Travelin Soldier A winner two-back in Inverness and could grab a minor share from post 1.

Race 8 6-5-2

Buckhead Ridge You couldn't ask for a more consistent trotter this season than this gelding. Had his win streak snapped at seven last time but we're wagering it is time to start a new one. He draws the far outside but that hasn't been an issue in the past. He's the top play in the Andrew Perry Memorial.

Fight Song He's one of the history books as he set the track record in his latest making Ashley Gamester the only female trainer to ever set an overall record at the Charlottetown Driving Park and Donnie MacRae the only owner to hold both track records at the same time. Could be make some more history tonight with the 1:57.2 Red Shores Summerside overall track record in sight?

Helpfull Princess There's enough there to believe she can be a strong part of this group, especially if Merner gets her forwardly placed early. Ripped And Ready got the best of her for third last time but she gets the inside draw so we'll use her to finish the ticket this time.

Race 9 5-1-2

Malevolent He's been the best of this group all season and now gets a chance to rebound with a better trip. The shorter field should make this a slam dunk to return to the winner's circle.

Bentley Trainer Clarey entered this colt in B-division action last week but did he ever shock that night at Truro Raceway winning in 1:54.2. He's in prime position to control the race or stalk and fire late.

All My Lovin' Won his A-division last time out and should be a big time factor again today.

Race 10 2-4-1

Merigo Magic This flashy son of Tobago Cays has been knocking heads with the heavyweights all season and now drops slightly in competition for this Plate consolation. The trip should be far more manageable in this group, and with Adam Merner in the bike and a favorable post, this guy is sitting on a big effort. A strong play with all the right elements lining up.

Saulsbrook Ian Don't overlook this gelding, he can deliver a strong closing kick. From post four, they have enough versatility to leave for position or take a seat and rally late. Either way, he's a live threat.

Little Leroy It's hard to find fault in a horse that's won four of six races and gets the rail tonight. With the rail Little Leroy should be part of the equation.

Race 11 5-7-3

Obsessed With Lou Rejoins Team Weatherbie for this one. The mid-pack post gives MacPhee plenty of flexibility, and with her current form, this daughter of Sweet Lou looks like she could strut to the winner's circle. She's the pick in a wide-open group.

Mac Anover He's been a tough horse to gauge at times, but has been racing much better. Don't be surprised if he wins it all.

Raised On Blacktop A live longshot who has been sneaky good in a few recent starts. With a bit of racing luck, he's a legitimate top-three candidate and a live ticket inclusion.

Race 12 1-7-8

Redland Misspretty From post one, Paul Langille can position her however he likes. Her consistency and gate speed give her a big edge in a field that lacks a standout, and this looks like a great chance to find the winner's circle in her biggest race of the season.

Galway Girl Would likely be the favourite if she drew better. The trip will be everything, but her raw speed and back class make her a live contender.

Freaky Fanny Don't let the outside draw scare you off entirely. She's fast, real fast. She may go off at a nice price and offers value in exotics.

Race 13 5-2-6

Bettor Than Spring This classy 10-year-old makes his local debut after top-class miles across the U.S. If he fires off the wings and lands in front or the pocket, we wouldn't be surprised to see him go all the way or fight for it right down to the wire.

Gator Hanover Shows 1:53 over Rideau Carleton and joins a hot barn. A legitimate win threat in a field that's very evenly matched.

House Edge Hanover A winner in his last two starts off of vastly different trips. Post six isn't easy, but he's tactical enough to leave if asked or drop in mid-pack and wait for the right time to move. A major player if things get aggressive up front.

Race 14 2-3-1

Phil My Beer The class of this division, plain and simple. He draws perfectly in this compact field and will almost certainly be pointed to the lead early. With the way he's been racing, it's going to take a major effort to deny him.

Woodmere Rocketman A very talented gelding that has held his own and never gives up. He may need to settle for second but if Phil My Beer misfires up front or things heat up early, Woodmere Rocketman is the one who'll capitalize.

Moonfall He hasn't been as flashy as the top pair, but he's rounding into form and comes into this one off a strong fourth-place showing last week. He has pace, and drawing the rail gives MacPhee options to sit close and potentially slide up the cones late. He's likely not ready to take down the top ones, but at the very least he's a logical ticket-hitter.

Most Probable Phil My Beer

Race 15 1-2-8

Woodmere Kennedie She's found her groove at the perfect time and rolls into the final with wins in four of her last 5, including a dominant 1:54.4 performance last week in the Chappell elimination. The rail draw gives Marc Campbell every tactical option – he can push forward early or track a target if one of the others leaves hard. Either way, this is her race to lose. She's in career-best form and comes in with a ton of momentum, and with the trip expected to be cozy, we're leaning her way in this $14,000 showdown.

Plain Jane This mare is never far off and has proven her mettle all season long. She used her early speed to secure the front in the elimination and fought tooth and nail to snag a spot in the final. From post two, MacPhee can either leave hard again or follow Woodmere Kennedie and wait for the stretch sprint. If the leader gets softened up at all, Plain Jane is sitting on a golden trip and could pounce late. Major player.

Rosetown Mary She's drawn the outermost post, which is never ideal, but she's got the class and consistency to overcome it. This mare has been in the thick of the action all season long, and her 1:54 score in the elimination proves she belongs at the top of the division. She'll be a price because of the draw, but she's absolutely a win threat if the early action sets her up. She could swoop late and become a champion just like her momma.

Race 16 2-4-1

High Voltage Deo Has drawn the outside in every big race he can in Atlantic Canada and now gets a prime time spot on his way to become a Governor's Plate Champion. Was in no-man's land at the half in his elimination and nearly got completely taken out of the race in the third turn but he persevered. If he can get himself out of that jam, what do you think he can do leaving post 2 in the biggest race of his trainer's career? If he can hold his position leaving and avoid any serious trip problems, we see Governor's Plate glory in his future.

Miki Shan N The fastest elimination winner and that makes three straight wins, and each one has been better than the last. He may very well be the post time favourite and for good reason with the way he can finish his miles. Regardless, he's one they'll all have to tackle late.

Roll Em Holds the overall track record over this oval after his 2023 Governor's Plate triumph. Plus the last time he drew the rail he wired the Premier's Cup Final in 1:52.3. Do what you will with that info but we're not about to leave him out.

Longshot Play Bounty Hunter
